To an unmarried lady named Hintz,
The mention of sex brings a wince.
In a burst of exuberance,
She sheathed Peter's protuberance,
And she's just been aborted of quints!

3 ABORTIONS G1669

With all the abortions each morn
Now performed on young ladies forlorn,
You don't need lots of nerve
Or a closed timeline curve,
To die months before you were born.

4 ABORTIONS Kay R Devicci

Said a girl to a friend from Milpitas,
"There's a doctor in town who will treat us,
For feminine ills,
And hot and cold chills,
Or even abort a young foetus."

5 ABORTIONS L0945

There was a young yuppie named Cort
Who begged of his wife, "Be a sport;
A good education
Befitting its station
Will bankrupt us both -- please abort!"

6 ABORTIONS Armand E Singer 730

There was a young girl of New Guinea,
Who got very large 'neath her pinny.
She thought it was wind,
But found she had sinned,
And she had it removed for a guinea.
(Pinny - pinafore)

7 ABORTIONS G1729

Blowing things out of proportion
Lead me to protest abortion.
I find it much fun,
As I load up my gun,
Much easier than plain old extortion.

8 ABORTIONS John Miller

The logic shown here is erratic;
Together with a stand, dogmatic.
That is just my view.
I'd never call you
A wierd, twisted, right-wing fanatic.

9 ABORTIONS John Miller

"Pro-lifers," he says "are so dumb,
If allowed, they'd protect their own come,
With sheer force of arms,
And see no one harms
What they leave in their queer boyfriends bum."

10 ABORTIONS John Miller

"Pro-choicers deserve the same adject-tive, who think that (somehow, as my magic)
Since the kids head is IN,
To kill him's no sin
And late-term abortion's not tragic.

11 ABORTIONS John Miller

This subject I've watched on the net
For over a decade and yet
No one's made any sense,
Offense or defense.
No post ever will, you can bet!

12 ABORTIONS John Miller

I read and I crack up with mirth;
'The soul enters the baby at birth!'
In or out of the hole,
Who knows what's a soul?
Have you any idea what it's worth?

13 ABORTIONS John Miller

And what of the fetus's brain?
Do you know when it starts to feel pain?
When the size of an oyster,
It's tasty but moister!
Don't worry, they'll never complain.

14 ABORTIONS John Miller

Killing the docs to stop killing?
Such irony I find fulfilling!
The logic is bad,
Makes pro-choicers mad,
All prospects for compromise chilling.

15 ABORTIONS John Miller

The pro-choicers won't admit, maybe
Not all the protestors are crazy.
(Do you know there's a clinic
Where the owner -- a cynic --
Sells photos of Folks With Dead Baby?)

16 ABORTIONS John Miller

For us Rimfolk, it's ever so easy.
If our kids turn out bad we're not queasy.
We wait 'till they're ripe
Then we cook them like tripe;
But to pick them too soon we find sleazy.
(rimfolk reproduce by budding)

17 ABORTIONS John Miller

There once was an innocent miss,
Who feared she'd conceived from a kiss.
So, as a precaution,
She had an abortion,
But naught was forthcoming but piss.

18 ABORTIONS L0946

The Feds will work hard to save face,
Finding Rudolph, using high tech to trace
Him -- Whatever they've got!
But good gracious! What
If he's long since departed that place?

19 ABORTIONS John Miller

Now it's two hundred men they will pay
To keep Rudolph from getting away.
(It may be black humor
But I've heard a rumor
He's training to pull Santa's sleigh).

20 ABORTIONS John Miller

So I'd guess it ten million a year
To get this manhunt into gear,
With results just the same
As with Saddam Hussein
Or the Prez, Christ! The prospect's so drear.

21 ABORTIONS John Miller

If they fail, then the shit hits the fan,
So the Feds will do all that they can.
If they can't find the right guy,
They'll shot some less bright guy
And fake it -- They will get their man!

22 ABORTIONS John Miller

Because of her careless contortion,
He belly was out of proportion.
Though she had gone astray,
It was only part way,
So she asked for a partial abortion.

23 ABORTIONS Albin Chaplin 3024-1407

A grey-headed tutor named Porson,
From some strange amatory contortion,

Cecilia of ample proportions
Took all contraceptive precautions,
But thin little Ermintrude
Let a small sperm intrude.
Do you know a good man for abortions?

25 ABORTIONS L0973

It's a gruesome procedure, it's plain;
Mere description should cause you great pain.
The kid is not dead,
All is born but his head,
Which they shrink by removing his brain.

30 ABORTIONS - CHOICE Bob Birch P0206

A religious young lady named Lunt
For abortions did go on a hunt.
But she should have, by heck,
Took that cross from her neck
And suspended it over her cunt.

31 ABORTIONS - CHOICE Al Chaplin P0303

Those Pro and those Anti abortion
Are using both fact and distortion.
Those Pro always voice
A Freedom of Choice,
Those Anti: "Abortion! Abort! Shun!"

More often than not is neglected
Or outright abused,
And grows up confused

34 ABORTIONS - CHOICE John Miller

The results of this strife are implicit:
A lifestyle which trends towards illicit --
To a person who steals
Or does shady deals
Or calls on the phone to solicit.

35 ABORTIONS - CHOICE John Miller

This affects you and me, if you please,
As a part of the criminal disease
That ties up our courts
And generally thwarts
Our desire for a life-style of ease.

36 ABORTIONS - CHOICE John Miller

As our system of justice congeals,
There's a need almost everyone feels,
To nip in the bud
This nefarious crud
And curtail all those senseless appeals.

37 ABORTIONS - CHOICE John Miller

From the wings steps our modern-day hero;
As proudly as Hitler or Nero.
No need for the courts,
He simply aborts:
The appeal rate is virtually zero.

38 ABORTIONS - CHOICE John Miller

Or, imagine! Commander in Chief!

These kids of their brains,
Thus ensuring careers that are brief.

39 ABORTIONS - CHOICE John Miller

What wisdom could a male draw upon?
With abortion, to voice pro or con.
If the path you can't trudge,
Are you then one to judge?
Is this the gospel according to John. (John Miller)

42 ABORTIONS - CHOICE   Irving Superior   P8911

"Free Choice," the determinist said,

That girls who think free,
Do really, through fate, find our bed."

43 ABORTIONS - CHOICE   Tucker D. Ott   P8912

An abortionist said, "It's an art,
Efficiently aborting a tart.
Though the prudish disparage

44 ABORTIONS - CHOICE   Grand Prix Lim 847

You know lawyers just hate to get burned,
So the cause of the fetus is spurned;
They can't pay in advance,
So they haven't much chance
Of getting the law overturned.

45 ABORTIONS - CHOICE John Miller 0033

As the big wheels of Justice grind slow,
Our mistrust of the system does grow.
So let's all get active,
Make the law retroactive,
And apply to some people we know.

46 ABORTIONS - CHOICE John Miller 0033a

A female who stands for free choice
Now surges and raises her voice.
Should sloppy guys bang her,
No rusty coat hanger
Shall make this non-mother rejoice.

47 ABORTIONS - CHOICE Tucker D. Ott P8912

For freedom of choice we've such thirst,
Any kid in the way will be cursed.
You can suck out his brain
To be flushed down the drain,
Just as long as his head's not out first.

48 ABORTIONS - CHOICE John Miller 0359

51 ABORTIONS - CHOICE Tiddy Ogg

In hearing the abortion debate
Are two foetal terms that I hate.
"My body" is one --
"The baby?" come on!
But "parasite"? -- That would be great!

52 ABORTIONS - CHOICE H Whelchel

Replace these two terms meant to cheat us.
(Concocted by pundits who treat us
To self-serving laws
That further their cause)
Say "parasite". (Not just the foetus)

53 ABORTIONS - CHOICE H Whelchel

Agreeing will mean,
We'd answer, "To be or not to be."

55 ABORTIONS - CHOICE Irving Superior P8911

Of all of the problems that meet us,
There is one that I fear will defeat us.
It is not the big bomb
Which we face with aplomb --
It is: What shall we do with the fetus?

Aunt Alice has such immense thighs,
That no matter which way she lies,
Men would need an extender
At the end of their gender,
To get at her copious prize.

Her lover was Harry McTeas,
Whose cock hangs right down past his knees;
And he won't ever say
How he stretched it that way,
But for Alice, he's sure built to please.

Your rich coffee cake, Sara Lee,

A lady quite broad in the beam
Was not as obese as would seem.
Though her overall girth
Would quite darken the Earth,
It left other planets agleam.

985 ANATOMY - FAT - VIEW BLOCKED   Warrick Elrod

An overweight lady named Platt
Was overheard once to say that
It just wasn't fair
For people to stare
And laugh just because she was fat.

986 ANATOMY - FAT - ZSERIES   Neal Wilgus   P8402

So she went to a doctor named Linn
Who removed all the fat 'neath her skin
And presented his bill
To get paid for his skill
And for showing her how to get thin.

987 ANATOMY - FAT - ZSERIES   Neal Wilgus   P8402

But once she had lost all that weight,
She jumped from her bed and said, "Great!
Let's negotiate, doc --
And I'll get out of hock.
You'll see how on our very first date!"

988 ANATOMY - FAT - ZSERIES   Neal Wilgus   P8402

I do like my girls statuesque,
With voluptuous curves Rubenesque.
But I don't mean by that
That I like them so fat,
They can't crawl on their knees 'neath my desk.

989 ANATOMY - FAT - ZSERIES   Peter Wilkins

If you've any room there to spare,
I'm sure that I'll fit under there.
Let's have a look-see.
Now what can this be?
My dear Peter, are you aware...

990 ANATOMY - FAT - ZSERIES   Carol

...There's crumbs from a chocolate cake,
Some marbles, a bit of rare steak,
A button, a sock,
A little blue clock,
The handle from your garden rake...

991 ANATOMY - FAT - ZSERIES   Carol

...And wires, there must be a mile
Of them on the side of the pile,
A chewed up old shoe,
Laying right next to
A book titled "Living In Style."

992 ANATOMY - FAT - ZSERIES   Carol

But still, I'm sure that I can squeeze
Under there, if you just move your knees
Apart, so they're spread,
Making room for my head.
Yes that's good; I fit there with ease.

993 ANATOMY - FAT - ZSERIES   Carol

At my place, you won't have to duck
Your head 'neath my desk for a suck.
We'll just use my soft bed,

994 ANATOMY - FAT - ZSERIES   Jon Gearhart

My love, you have gotten so fat,
I can't find where your wee-wee is at.

As long as it's clean and smells sweet?
Better than some whore's
Encrusted green sores,

My dear, that's not where my hat's at!
That hairy spot is our kitty cat!

What is this obsession with size,
As if bodies alone can cause rise?
If big were just it,
Fat we'd be a bit,
So just what does this thought comprise?

1003 ANATOMY - FAT - ZSERIES

A couple centuries ago,
Fattened flesh, men's small minds would blow.
Flesh equaled large wealth,
As well as much health,
And so certain small things did grow.

Exquisite are Deborah's feet;
They're exceedingly neat and petite;
And her delicate toes
Gently gripping one's hose,
An erotic unmissable treat.

1016 ANATOMY - FEET Peter Wilkins

Yes, Deborah is just quite a vamp.
Indeed, some folks call her a tramp.
But what will you do
If you remove her shoe,
And find her foot knotted in cramp?

1017 ANATOMY - FEET Jeanie

I know what to do for that cramp;
Toes and arch I will lick like a champ;
Her ankles I'll stroke;
I'll look, and then croak,
"By Jove, love, your knickers are damp!"

1018 ANATOMY - FEET Alan Wolverton

Her sister's foot's covered in mud.
If you wash it, you'll find it's a dud.
Not pink, plump, and rosy,
You'll find that her toesy
Look like marshmallows stuck in a spud.

1019 ANATOMY - FEET Jeanie

On that trenchfoot, I'd rather not dine,
Without dipping them in something fine;
With damp knickers I'll rub,
On those toes in the tub,
Then I'll soak them in high-class French wine!

1020 ANATOMY - FEET Alan Wolverton

I must say your plan does sound loony.
Just imagine those digits all pruny?
All shriveled and shrunk,

The thought of it's making me puny.

1027 ANATOMY - FEET

There was an old woman named Rose
With aching feet one of her woes.
She bathed in soda water

But more to feel fizz 'twixt her toes.

1028 ANATOMY - FEET Warrick Elrod

Your toes are so cute I can't stand it --
Provocative, as if you'd planned it.
They're charming and sweet,
Hence I favor bare feet.
I do not request, I demand it.

1029 ANATOMY - FEET Heather McCabe

I guess that I'm now on the spot,
And it seems that you know what I've got.
You've measured my feet,

1030 ANATOMY - FEET Al Willis

The foot, if thoroughly clean,
Can be a hot, sexual machine.
A toe that is sucked
Can get a guy fucked

1031 ANATOMY - FEET Frank Fazed

A designer of shoes never warns
Of chic footwear that gaily adorns,
For it never fits well.
That is why they say hell
Hath no fury like a woman's corns.

1032 ANATOMY - FEET Bob Giandomenico P9004

My feet are beginning to fail;
They're dunked in a hot-water pail,
Which is like a palace
For the giant heel callous,
But not for ingrowing toenail.

1033 ANATOMY - FEET Archie

And now, I know just how that feels;
The aching, the drying skin peels.
But hon, that's the price,
Trying to look nice,
And wearing those four-inch high heels.

1034 ANATOMY - FEET Carol

Come here, and I'll rub them for you.
Say what? Now your feet have turned blue?
I'm rolling my eyes
And sighing some sighs.
You first must remove the blue shoes!

1035 ANATOMY - FEET Carol

To think of my feet, you are sweet,
And sweetness in friends is a treat.
Would you be so kind?
I hope you won't mind,
I will help myself to a seat.

1036 ANATOMY - FEET Archie

I was dangling my feet off the dock.
Then the game warden

1037 ANATOMY - FEET Bob Badger

A Finn who lived in Helsinki
Had feet that were terribly stinky.
What made his wife stay

Was a weakness for sex that was kinky.

1038 ANATOMY - FEET Macsam

There was an old man of the Ooze,
Whose daughters wore oversized shoes.
When the river broke out,
At the end of the drought,
They were much in demand as canoes.

1039 ANATOMY - FEET John Blyth

Consider those objects called feet.
While some are exceeding petite,
And sweet, there are some
Which decidedly hum
And resemble huge platters of meat.

1040 ANATOMY - FEET Peter Wilkins

But the feet that are best, by far,
At least to us southern boys, are
The ones we don't waste
And have a great taste,
Like pickled pigs feet in a jar.

1041 ANATOMY - FEET Travis Brasell

And then there are metrical feet,
That used right, will make limericks sweet.
They total thirteen

In oom-pah-pah oom-pah-pah beat.

1042 ANATOMY - FEET Tiddy Ogg

There was a young lady from Ryde
Whose shoestrings were often untied,
By a gent with a fetish
Who enjoyed, pied a tete-ish,
To swallow the toe-cheese inside.

1043 ANATOMY - FEET

I guess I can't wait till it snows
To clip the long nails off my toes;
My old cowboy boots
Appear to have roots
From twenty years growth, I suppose.

1044 ANATOMY - FEET

But having long toenails is great
For climbing up steep hills of slate,
And scratching my back,
Or some old whore's crack;
On ice, though, it's so hard to skate.

1045 ANATOMY - FEET

There was an old man of Montrose,
Who had the most peculiar toes.
They grew to such strength,

1046 ANATOMY - FEET Cyril Bibby P9307

You know I just looked at my feet
And they are most incredibly neat.
10 little toes
All in two rows;
My goodness, aren't they sweet.

1047 ANATOMY - FEET

There is a thing about feet
That makes us the most elite;
Animals have paws
Or maybe claws
But feet? They can't be beat!

1048 ANATOMY - FEET

Feet are really neat;
You can tap them to a beat.
You can disco dance
Or electric trance;
I really do love my feet.

1049 ANATOMY - FEET

I think that's enough on feet;
The creativity is quite replete.
'Cause I have fear
By way too much beer.
But you must admit, they ARE sweet.

1050 ANATOMY - FEET

Good heavens; I've looked and my toes
Are, like yours, arranged neatly in rows.
But I hope I'm not fated
To find we're related,
And have to keep rein on my hose.

1051 ANATOMY - FEET

My foot's just a measuring tool;
I ain't making use of them, fool!
If you want to boff,
You'd better go off
And find someone who's not so cool.

1052 ANATOMY - FEET

On closer inspection
They are utter perfection,
But the rest of me's quite obsolete!

Of this current digit report.)

Dear Ladies, it's really not fair
That once monthly, you suffer despair.
Most men too, have grief;
There is no relief,
Daily stripping of fresh facial hair.

What's so bad about shaving your face?
When women must shave every place,
Or face ridicule
When they swim at the pool,
Their unshaven legs a disgrace!

1106 ANATOMY - HAIR Dave Seymour

The male has grief, I am sure,
From cutting away his chin fur.
Much better it bare
Than rub my thighs rare;
I advise you of this, my dear sir!

1107 ANATOMY - HAIR Dave Seymour

So if I arrive at your place
With a freshly clean-shaven face,
You'd then think it wise
To relinquish your thighs,
And my chin with them embrace.

Some cultures think we are obsessed
With how women look when they're dressed.
If you can see hair,
Remove it from there;
We think that shaved armpits are best.

For Europeans think it is best.
But when going down,
To start fooling around,
Shaved beavers are better'n the rest!

Country Club equals Y.M.C.A

1466 ANATOMY - ODOR Loren C Fitzhugh P9706

There was a cheese-maker named Scott
Who found the new flavor he sought.
When he took his first sniff,
His pecker got stiff,
So he labeled it Essence of Twat.

1467 ANATOMY - ODOR Albin Chaplin 3024-2291

I just heard your encounter with Riff
Had backfired by scaring you stiff.
Said you scowled and you frowned
On the chair you were bound...
And then fainted when given a whiff.

1468 ANATOMY - ODOR

And on the next floor there is me,
Holding nose most delicately,
And I sarcastically say
In my usual way,
"Was THAT after shave for free?"

1469 ANATOMY - ODOR

*he B.O. that most people get
Is caused by a gland that's upset.
Upset that you play
And work every day
And simply just hate to get wet.

1470 ANATOMY - ODOR Irving Superior P9706

If you want to study B.O.,
A whorehouse--the right place to go.
Not only of body
But also of bawdy,
Which very few laymen would know.

1471 ANATOMY - ODOR Irving Superior P9706

A soiled, odorous Dervish, a churl
Had among mindless "Groupies" one pearl,
Who'd break-dance on her head
Then spiral into bed
With her goatskin robes all awhirl.

1472 ANATOMY - ODOR Loren C. Fitzhugh P9706

My dear husband's feet smell of cheese.
I say, "Keep your socks on, if you please!"
Gorgonzola and brie
Don't appeal much to me;
They cause me to choke, retch, and wheeze.

1473 ANATOMY - ODOR Jayne

I've got a sister called Melly,
And obviously she's quite smelly.
She lives up to the rhyme
And stinks all the time;
We can't wait 'til she moves to New Dehli.

1474 ANATOMY - ODOR

If ever you visit Miss Otis--
The lady with underarm otus--
On raising her arm,
A nasal alarm.
You'll search her abode--where the goat is?

1475 ANATOMY - ODOR Irving Superior P9706

The minute you enter her room, it's as though an exotic perfume
That makes you recall--
A few, but not all--
Of many an lady friend's womb.

1476 ANATOMY - ODOR Irving Superior P9706

I thought when you entered my room,
You were wearing some special perfume
Made of garlic and stuff.
The odor was rough;
I was lucky you left there so soon.

1477 ANATOMY - ODOR Bernie

You're gorgeous, from head down to feet;
Your sexual skills can't be beat.
But what makes me clench
My teeth is the stench.
You smell like a vixen in heat.

1478 ANATOMY - ODOR

Tried to raise you right -- you never listened!
And now you're your Ma's little pissant.
There's a striking resemblance;
To encourage remembrance,
Why even the smells reminiscent.

1479 ANATOMY - ODOR

There was a young beatnik named Howard
Whose girl for a month had not showered.

Is that when I sweat,
They accuse me of O.B.B.O."

1481 ANATOMY - ODOR Tom Patton P9708

That part of the bod is unsung,
But the thought of it keeps me quite young.
The name I can't tell, (It has sensitive nerves,)
But it does have a smell, (And it tastes like preserves.)
And it's right on the tip of my tongue.

1482 ANATOMY - ODOR Al Willis P9706

My dearest, I'm feeling content
As I lie on your breast, but the scent
Of your perfume is too
Overpowering -- ACHOO!
Can't you fucking well open a vent?

'Cause the peculiar way that I smell."

1484 ANATOMY - ODOR Richard Plaistowe

He's as cool and as baked as Alaska
(And he brings his own bowl for his hashka.)
But a whiff of that spice that makes dirty girls nice --
And damn! He's as hot as tabaska!

1485 ANATOMY - ODOR

You say that all perfume is bosh,
And with natural scent you're awash.
Though sometimes the pong
Is a little bit strong,
Those pheremones get me, by gosh.

1486 ANATOMY - ODOR

Maggie's the one makes me wet;
The sexiest girl I have met.
We're very good friends,
Or lovers, depends
On whether she's quenching my jet.

1487 ANATOMY - ODOR H Whelchel

A comic book called HBS (Horny Biker Sluts by John Howard)
Depicts what she looks like undressed.
She's quite like the chick
With mouth full of dick,
And little skull ring in her breast.

1488 ANATOMY - ODOR H Whelchel

She likes when I rhyme of her skill,
Or how she last gave me a thrill.
Now if you'll excuse,
The thought of her cooze
Requires me to pickle my dill.

1489 ANATOMY - ODOR H Whelchel

Maggie smells nice when she sweats.
Her pheromones make me forgets
To think conscious thoughts.
My limbic cumshots
Conclude when the coma onsetsszzzzz.

1490 ANATOMY - ODOR H Whelchel

Comic strips really imitate life
And a couple with stinkers were rife.

Transcended mere "scenty".
They'd a smell you could cut with a knife.

1491 ANATOMY - ODOR Loren C. Fitzhugh P9706

Was at best a purveyor of sleaze.
It came from his toes,
So offending the nose,
That it brought a grown man to his knees.

1492 ANATOMY - ODOR Jim Weaver Collection

My uncle smells funny, no doubt;
I'm trying to figure it out.
The aroma's not sweet;
Could it be from his feet?
It reminds me of old sauerkraut.

1493 ANATOMY - ODOR Anon

Say "musk" and I think of Rebecca;
For the horny, her pussy was Mecca.
Though her hot little body
Was not at all shoddy,
'Twas her odor that stiffened my pecka.

A pustule on some old whores ass --
A putrid and swollen green mass --
Was pinched by a turd,
And spewed out a curd
That smelled of sweet cream and cut grass!

1500 ANATOMY - ODOR H Whelchel

Clearly, one must have a defense
From one's sexual opposite's scents.
A stench of your own
Staunches whore-moan-al tones,
And separates ladies from gents.

1501 ANATOMY - ODOR

There once was a girl named Michelle
Who washed her hair daily with Prell;
She used Listerine
To keep her breath clean,
But her underarms still stunk like hell.

1502 ANATOMY - ODOR Travis Brasell

And why's your proboscis stuffed under
The arms of Michelle? We wonder
What make you just tarry
In armpits quite hairy,
Instead of her pussy to plunder.

1503 ANATOMY - ODOR Travis Brasell

'Tis the pheremones 'pon which he's bent;
Uncontrollably drawn to the scent
From which others would run
Thinking, my what a bum,
Is for his perversion, a vent.

1504 ANATOMY - ODOR Andy

Behavior, he's probably clonal.
He goes around sniffing
And panting and whiffing
At odors that give him a bonal.

1505 ANATOMY - ODOR Travis Brasell

To prepare for my dates, as a man,
I'd use Arrid and Dial and Ban.
All just to quell
That over-ripe smell.
Great -- now they sell sweat in a can.

1506 ANATOMY - ODOR Tom Accousti

Some scurrilous lies 'bout my sox
Have been spreading like wildfire or pox.
I would just like to say
They smell sweeter than hay;
(Though less sweet, I admit, than my jocks.)

1507 ANATOMY - ODOR

A perfume inspector was Scott,
At work he sniffed perfumes a lot.
At the end of the day,
He would come home and say,
"You can't beat the odor of twat."

1508 ANATOMY - ODOR Albin Chaplin 3024-2290

My Valentine, your ass is just swell;
Here's some perfume to help with the smell.
Just spray it all over;
Smells just like fresh clover,
So if you spray on too much...oh well.

1509 ANATOMY - ODOR M Foster

The professer, a mean old punk,
Ate Limberger cheese by the chunk;

And the farts that he'd blow,
It was worse than a run-over skunk.

1510 ANATOMY - ODOR

Though he was a good-looking gent,
He put off the girls with his scent.
In accents quite scathing,
One asked, "And your bathing--
I guess that's a yearly event?"

What a wonderful family! What marvellous style!
I'll bet you and I aren't close by a mile.
Their odor and diet
Won't soon be forgotten,
And one day you and I may be equally rotten.

Monogamy should be our goal,
But if it is our fate
To have only one mate,
Why does every key fit every hole.

1518 ANATOMY - SEXUAL John K. Roberts P9302

A midget said, "In the end, it'll

Our brain's in a small bag of rocks.

Collected weird things every day,
Like short witty ditties,
On tushes and titties,
And sexual organs at play.

1522 ANATOMY - SEXUAL

Though sometimes she smells like manure.
If God is so smart,
Why put the best part
Of a woman right next to the sewer.

1523 ANATOMY - SEXUAL Aussie owl

And all about their genitalia.
When along came a Negro --
They grow larger than we grow --

1528 ANATOMY - SEXUAL L0210

Now the female hyena does not
Have your average mammalian twat;
When you see it up close,
Her clitoris is gross!
It's no wonder she laughs a whole lot.

1529 ANATOMY - SEXUAL Allen Wolverton

Well now, you've got my brain flexed;
At my wits, I really am vexed.
How could you get close
To a clit that is gross.
I'm afraid I'm completely perplexed.

1530 ANATOMY - SEXUAL Steve Hocking

'Bout hyenas, got facts second-hand,
But a lass with a big clit is grand.
Put your mind well at ease;
She'll be easy to please,
Just as long as you stay out of sand.

1531 ANATOMY - SEXUAL Allen Wolverton

One slip and you'll be in the shit.
It brings tears to my eyes
I can hardly disguise;
It's enough to make one have a fit.

1532 ANATOMY - SEXUAL Steve Hocking

I wonder what made God decide
Girl's pee holes are something to hide.
It's not easy to see,
For she must sit to pee,
While the man's thing is hanging outside.

1533 ANATOMY - SEXUAL

There are some things we mustn't expose,
So we hide them away in our clothes.
Oh, it's shocking to stare
At what's certainly there --
But why this is so, heaven knows.

It comes from the roosters, not dames.
You all cock-a-doodle
While naming your noodle;
We women aren't into those games.

The first minutes are spent
With him chatting her titties, she claims.

And it means you're a woman, top notch.

1542 ANATOMY - SEXUAL Chimera

But if what you've got in the middle,
Hangs down like a single stringed fiddle,
With a blue vien and wrinkles,
And one eye that twinkles,
You're a man who must stand up to piddle.

Whether she sits or stands to pee.
And if up she stands,
Hope she'll wash her hands,
Then put the lid back down for me.

1568 ANATOMY - SEXUAL Carol

They called in a doctor ere long,

Although more than a stub
It's a Clitoral-Nub,

The phone calls came in by the score,
From ladies who, too,

You'd have double fun, thus
For stiff members, too, twice the care!

The hippies laid rest to those days
With their loud, raucous, outspoken ways.
When really zonked out,
They often would spout
Naughty words that would truly amaze.

2078 ART - CRITICS John Miller

Then the organs of sex came to style,
And stayed popular quite a long while.
Folk really weren't fussy
When you used the word "pussy"
And they even took "cunt" with a smile.

2079 ART - CRITICS John Miller

Next, ladies whoe once used to blush
At "testicle", "titty" and "tush",
Made language, once vile,
Into feminine style,
With the good stuff regarded as mush.

2080 ART - CRITICS John Miller

With the shift of the meaning of "gay",
The perverts were next to hold sway.
We were up to our ears
In jokes about "queers" --
But that trend is now going away.

2081 ART - CRITICS John Miller

Now often from children of six
You hear words I first heard at Fort Dix;
While a mild ethnic slur
Is apt to incur
The wrath of the liberal chicks.

2082 ART - CRITICS John Miller

Oh, My Goodness! I called her a "chick!"
The feminists here will be quick
To point out that I
Am a terrible guy,
A "sexist" and "redneck" and PRICK!

2083 ART - CRITICS John Miller

Religion has always been tough.
If remarks that you make "off the cuff"
To "them" are offensive,
You must switch to defensive,
The invective is apt to get rough!

2084 ART - CRITICS John Miller

Of disabled we're very protective;
"Challenged" is used for "defective".
(A good rule of thumb:
Don't call the dumb "dumb",
There are synonyms just as effective.)

2085 ART - CRITICS John Miller

If you want to keep up with this all,
Just listen while down at the mall.
Though "nigger" comes easy,
To use it is sleazy,
But the "F" word is no crime at all.

2086 ART - CRITICS John Miller

These changes in meaning aren't mild;
Some day I can guess it not wild
To cringe and to stutter
While trying to utter
Words like "mother" and "family" and "child".

2087 ART - CRITICS John Miller

Wrote a critic, a stuffy old bloke:
"The concert last night was a joke;
The tempos were frantic,
The program: Romantic,
And the instruments all were Baroque."

2088 ART - CRITICS Cybergeezer

The star of "Anne Frank" was erratic,
And the critics were less than ecstatic --
Her acting so grim,
When the Germans marched in,
Cried the audience, "SHE'S IN THE ATTIC!"

2089 ART - CRITICS Arthur Deex P8503

"A rose is a rose is a rose."
But comments from critics of prose --
"Just why 'a rose' thrice?"
"Why not 'a rose' twice?"
Arose and arose and arose.

2090 ART - CRITICS Irving Superior P9803

A writer of poems, to succeed,
Must listen to Arthur x-eeD.
The words, all in rhyme,
And the meter, sublime,
But the past tense of piss must be peed.

2091 ART - CRITICS Al Willis

I find that both banjo and mime
Are not forms of art, but a crime.
All that ill-tuning
And silent buffooning;
Let's throw them all into the brine.

2092 ART - CRITICS Tom Myers

2093 ART - CRITICS John Galsworthy

Our novels get longer and longer.
Their language gets stronger and stronger.
There's much to be said
For a life to be led
In illiterate places like Bonga.

2094 ART - CRITICS H. G. Wells

Of the "poets" whose works grace the pages
Of the best magazines, though outrageous,
Rhyme and metre are foreign (Formless prattle is more in.)
I just hope their style isn't contagious.

2095 ART - CRITICS John Sandler P9107

With critics, one need not dispute;
Like asses they are not astute.
When asses are roused
And on fruit trees have browsed,
Then the trees will bear much finer fruit.

2096 ART - CRITICS Albin Chaplin 3024-2546

If I don't let it out,
I'd scream and I'd shout,
And finish up under the bed."

Artists all strongly strive for a hit.

I think it's imprudent of Bean
To be picayune, blunt and mean;
Our Johnny has heart
And plays a big part

Entertaining our club is young Wendy;
Her show is both risque and trendy.
Removing her thong
Leaves most of the throng
Of members with members just bendy.

Could Wendy be one and the same
Young lady who danced o'er a flame,
And during the stunt,
Her ass and her cunt
Were welded shut? Damn, what a shame!

In bygone days amorous deeds
Were needed to meet a girl's needs;
However, today
You'll hear a girl say:
"I'll strip for some Mardi Gras beads!"

2330 ART - DANCE - ECDYSIAST SERIES

"Oh my, ain't it all so romantic?!!"
Cry the girls, as the photogs quite frantic
To get titties on tape
Give out beads while they gape
And their profits and cocks grow gigantic!

2331 ART - DANCE - ECDYSIAST SERIES

Ah those days when to shed what I'd don
On a balcony, for beads, are long gone.
When I threaten to strip
the lads shout "from the hip":
"You'll get beads if you keep your clothes on!"

Land sakes, child, now that one is funny!
But I know a secret, cute honey:

"Beads, hell!" you yell, "Show me the money!"

My beautiful bombshell was dancing
Around on the stage and was prancing.
She could straighten the pleats

The lights are down dim and quite low,
As I enter the stage for the show.
With silky black lace,
Draped in the right place,
The music has started and so....

2351 ART - DANCE - ECDYSIAST SERIES

I start with a bump and a grind;
The lace I begin to unwind,
Slowly revealing,
What it was concealing,
My thong covered lacy behind.

2352 ART - DANCE - ECDYSIAST SERIES

The music now picks up a beat,
And I'm starting to feel the heat.
I shimmy and shake,
The thin bra straps break,
As I bend down to give you a treat.

2353 ART - DANCE - ECDYSIAST SERIES

As you watch my gyrating hips,
And reach out to fondle my nips,

And both of her nipples get sucked,

But now it is my turn, you see.
The music cranks up a degree;
The spotlight shines bright
As you wait for the sight
Of my body with tits double-D.

2356 ART - DANCE - ECDYSIAST SERIES

I enter and waltz out real slow,
In a gown that is cut down real low,
Near revealing my nipples,
With drapes and with ripples,
Concealing the hair down below.

2357 ART - DANCE - ECDYSIAST SERIES

Sliding the gown from my shoulder.
I rotate my hips
And show you my nips;
As I dance, my eyes how they smoulder!

2358 ART - DANCE - ECDYSIAST SERIES

I turn away slowly and glance
Back at you, dancing my dance.
My hips, how they wiggle!
And tits, how they jiggle!
My audience seems in a trance.

2359 ART - DANCE - ECDYSIAST SERIES

Gets more than my temperature rising
My bulbous hard member

That grinding you do and that bump
Have such an effect on my stump,

Has made it's way down to my feet;

2364 ART - DANCE - ECDYSIAST SERIES

The gyrations of your hot body,

I once had a budding romance
With a lady from Brittany, France
Who said, "Darling, mon cher,
If you want an affair,
You will have to romance me with dance."

"Ma cherie", I remarked, "I'm bereft;
I have feet but they're both of them left.
So as for romancing
By taking you dancing,
I fear I'm not nimble or deft."

She offered to teach me the waltz;
Tried correcting my myriad faults;
But I said, "That's enough
Of this 1 2 3 stuff."
To my ears it was musical schmaltz.

"I'll give you", she said, "One more chance,
For I'm sure you'll enjoy this new dance;
It's the tango no less!"
But I have to confess
All I felt was that dance in my pants.

The salsa is merely for dancing;
The tango's OK for romancing;
No further they go.
The lambada, you know,
Combines dancing, romancing, and lancing!

Is that how they dance in Granada?
Well, how 'bout we dance the lambada?
If naked you be,

There once was a young dancing queen,

Punch faster and faster --
Till the clock punched him out of his mind.

Of a ten-dollar note
Was so good, he is now in Sing Sing.

When I stand by this work and debate,
On the stiffs easing out,
Is that quite without doubt,
They are all of them going to be late.

Whistler's Mother said, "James, It's not right
That the Art World's lost sight of my plight.
Have you noticed that they
Say, 'Life's all sheades of grey'
But then claim that mine's just Black and White?"

2875 ART - PAINTING Loren C Fitzhugh P9808

The great speed she revealed was a shocker;
Back and forth, so fast no one could clock her.
Then came the tragic end
Which they never could mend:
Whistler's Mom, on the floor, off her rocker.

2876 ART - PAINTING Loren Fitzhugh

Winnigan, an artist had an ache
To paint his great work of a lake.
But it turned out sloppy
A very poor copy;
The critics called it Winnigan's Fake.

2877 ART - PAINTING Tom Patton

The world's short poem - The Fleas - is just
To me a plagiaristic must.
Line one - Adam
Line two - Had 'em.
The author is Anonymous.

2878 ART - POETRY Irving Superior P8207

A pedant who writes on catharsis
Got his thesis mixed up with his arses.

2880 ART - POETRY Thomas Thorneley

I offer my verse for your measure,
Whenever you've patience or leisure.
Though you eschew the idyll,
And gainsay the bridal,
I fain would become your new treasure.

Your verse offered is pure pleasure,
Reading it induces a seizure
Of delight in erudition
On this mixed-bag expedition,
Saved now for non-erasure.

I often make this remark:
A candle is only a spark.
I think it's too small;
It lacks wherewithall.
It's better to curse the dark.

2884 ART - POETRY Al Willis

I spotted these daffs by the lake;
And a right pretty picture they make.
Because of these flowers,
I'm dreaming for hours,
Which gives my libido a break.
(I wandered lonely as a cloud...)

2885 ART - POETRY E O Parrot

For years it has long been an end of mine
To get up a book for a friend of mine;
This man is a medic
(Genus orthopedic)
Who else would I let mend a bend of mine.

2886 ART - POETRY W S Baring-Gould

Which light verse's eight short choppy lines,
Oft writ by the brilliantest minds,
Showing great lapse of taste,
Or an excess of haste,
In dactylic name-dropping off-rhymes?
(sounds like double-dactyl to me - McW)

2887 ART - POETRY Robin K Willoughby P8508

That old double dactyl's extinct.
A dinosaur bird, so I think,
It ran out of luck
When an asteroid struck,
And so 'neath the waves it did sink.

2888 ART - POETRY

One day I did feel really queer;
'Twas a double dactyl, I fear.
It emerged from the toilet
And I don't want to spoil it,
But he could at least have poured me a beer.

2889 ART - POETRY

A double dactyl just came to my bed
And asked me to give it some head.
I said "Begone, you foul thing"
And I then heard it sing:
"OK, I'll have a beer instead!"

2890 ART - POETRY

I heard him go into the kitchen
(I tell you my body was twitchin')
He took out some beers
And burped and said "Cheers!
To confound you, my brain is just itchin'."

2891 ART - POETRY

And then there was silence, dear me!
As I wondered where he could be.
But dactyls at night
No longer cause fright.
'Cause he'd made me a nice cup of tea!

2892 ART - POETRY

My god what a pterable sight;
Those horrible dactyls in flight.
Are they mega or giga
Or ptera or bigger?
Whatever they are, they're a fright!

2893 ART - POETRY

That dactyl was probably me;
I remember the beer and the tea
And the cries of alarm,
When you thought I might harm
You 'tween midnight and quarter to three.

2894 ART - POETRY

So how 'bout this evening we meet?
You can play with my metrical feet
Or possibly fiddle
The one in the middle
And double my dactyl, my sweet.

2895 ART - POETRY

To limericks some folks are adverse;
'Tis said that no odes could be worse,
So a prudish man pondered
And he had them all laundered,
But they all ended up as blank verse.

2896 ART - POETRY Albin Chaplin P8212

There was a young poet of Kew,
Who failed to emerge into view.
So he said, "I'll dispense
With rhyme, meter, and sense",
And he did, and he's now in Who's Who.

2897 ART - POETRY Anon

A confined Philistine named Delury,
Had slain a young poet in fury.
The corpse, a wine-bibber,
Had dealt in 'verse libre',
So Delury was thanked by the jury.

2898 ART - POETRY Isaac Asimov

I like a poem with rhyme,
With meaning, and meter, and time.
It just drives me crazy,
When the message is hazy.
And free verse is simply a crime!

2899 ART - POETRY Zachary Nicolai

What you see's what you get, I suppose.
It's just like the Emperor's new clothes.
Free verse is a crime,
No meter, no rhyme.
I can't tell the shit from bad prose!

2900 ART - POETRY   Bob Moers   TP9802

A verse libre young poet from Reeder
Affirmed art without rhythm is sweeter.
But when she met Pete,
With his four metric feet,
She'd applied her technique to his meter.

2901 ART - POETRY   Lims For Year - 01

Her eyes, the glow-worm lend thee,
The shooting starres attend thee;
And the elves also
Whose little eyes glow
Like the sparks of fire, befriend thee.

2902 ART - POETRY   Robert Herrick

There was a young poet named Peck
Whose poems had earned a great check,
He had gathered them all
From the urinal wall
Of the Parliament House in Quebec.

2903 ART - POETRY   Albin Chaplin 3024 P9501

But found her imprudence
When thousands of students
Cried, "We are all in that category."

2904 ART - POETRY   James Joyce

HAIKU, from the Nippon nation,
Suffers from cultural inflation.
Japanese: They're a treat!
Anericans: Where's the meat?
Almost nothing survives the translation.

2905 ART - POETRY Norm Brust

There are Japanese poets I like who
Write short little poems, not unlike you.
But your verse, perverse is
Compared to theirs, worse is.
Suggest you should just take a HAIKU.

2906 ART - POETRY Gary Hallock

Short Nipponese poetry, HAIKU,
Takes nature serenely, like Mike who Cannot wait for Spring,
Flowers blossoming,
Long walks and listening to his tyke coo.

2907 ART - POETRY Daniel Ford

The HAIKU, that Japanese sport,
Is seventeen syllables short.
A limerick's song
Has double as long,
In which for two folks to disport.

2908 ART - POETRY Nick

A limerick is usually rude;
Sometimes it is even quite crude;
But now I propose
That somebody compose
A haiku that's funny and lewd.

2909 ART - POETRY Anon

Do I like those haikus? Yes, ever!
They just need some thought that's clever.
Needing not rhythm nor rhyme,
They require just some time.
But give up on limericks? No, Never!

2910 ART - POETRY Monique de Plume

I shall, with cultured taste,
Distinguish gems from paste,
And High diddle diddle
Will rank as an idyll,
If I pronounce it chaste!

2911 ART - POETRY W S Gilbert

There was a young man named McNamiter,
With a tool of prodigious diameter.
But it wasn't the size
Gave the girls the surprise,
But his rhythm, iambic pentameter.

2912 ART - POETRY L0194

A wonderful thing is the limerick,
But its consequence is a slimmer chick.
For when she's in verse,
Her appetite's worse
(Which also accounts for my slimmer dick).

2913 ART - POETRY Macsam

It's doggerel only I send.
It's doggerel only I've penned.
Catechism I shun --
Too rigid, no fun.
It's doggerel, man's better friend.

2914 ART - POETRY Laurence Perrine P8307

There's a ponderous pundit MacHugh
Who wears goggles of ebony hue.
As he mostly sees double
To wear them why trouble?
I can't see the Joe Miller. Can You?

2915 ART - POETRY James Joyce P9008

The lim and the sonnet and ode
All take a very different road.
The lines and the rhymes
And the rhythmical chimes
Are fixed and are set for each mode.

2916 ART - POETRY Archie

There was a young poet of Thusis,
Who took twilight walks with the Muses.
But these nymphs of the air
Are not quite what they were,
And the practice has led to abuses.

2917 ART - POETRY L Reed (L Untermeyer?)

I'm not really much of a fan
Of poems with no rhyme in their plan.
But there's nothing worse
Than to read someone's verse
And finding the lines do not scan.

2918 ART - POETRY Bob Giandomenico P9509

This poetry, I thought at first glance,
Is timely, and maybe enchants.
People may recognize
That it warrants a prize,
But I don't think that it stanza chance.

2919 ART - POETRY Kirk Miller

No editor normally seeks
To publish books cherished by freaks;
The market, they say,
Is too small to pay--
So one may as well stick with Doc Deex.

2920 ART - POETRY Norm Storer P9507

Sternly warned that the magazine
Is quite choosy 'bout what lies within,
My face was quite red
When the editor said,
"All verse here must be strictly clean!"

2921 ART - POETRY Phil T

I thought she was being contrary.
She said, "This is a mag literary,
And content obscene
Would cause quite a scene.
Your naughty verse is just too scary."

2922 ART - POETRY Phil T

Gentle readers, I was quite distraught;
Clenching fists, I said "This shall be fought!"
She said "Why don't you
Write a nice Haiku",
So my anger had all come to naught.

2923 ART - POETRY Phil T

But why deviate from the norm?
The next day I wrote up a storm.
With eyes heavenbent,
I hereby present
My resonse in my favorite form.

2924 ART - POETRY Phil T

There once lived a poet named Jeux,
Who only composed in Haiku.
But for all of the praise,
For his wit and set phrase,
He's read less than he is reviewed.

2925 ART - POETRY Phil T

If money to me you'd disburse
For odes that were raunchy or worse,
In that case, I should say
In my deviant way,
I guess that my pay'd be per verse.

2926 ART - POETRY Kirk Miller Dick Hull?

Who is that, whom I hear on the door knock?
The PESTILENT person from Porlock!
He'd have pox on his skin
And a plaque on his kin,
If I were a wizard or warlock.

2927 ART - POETRY Eva Amata

When approached by a person from Porlock,
It is best to take time by the forelock.
Shout, "I'm not at home,
Till I've finished this poem!"
And refuse to unfasten the door-lock.

2928 ART - POETRY Richard Leighton Greene

Said a pornographistic young poet,
"Although I perhaps do not show it,
My interest in sin,
Is wearing quite thin,
And I'll soon tell those fuckers to stow it.

2929 ART - POETRY

This limerick's FIRST is a letter.
Her heralds B, C, D or better.
Excitable, snappish,
Coleric as crap (pish!):
His SECOND's limerical fetter.

2930 ART - POETRY Michael Polo P8606

And when a clock's tocking is heard
Rebutting this sound is his THIRD.
A puzzle, it's true.
Damn tricky one, too...
ENTIRETY's that type of word.
(answers 1. ACROSSTIC 2. THE CHARADE [read down])

2931 ART - POETRY Michael Polo P8606

A raffine poet named Partz,
Took a rather high view of the arts.
He was quick to proclaim
His hard gemlike flame,
But the best he could manage was quartz.
(raffine - ? raffish - unkempt, tawdry)

2932 ART - POETRY John Ciardi

Limericks are poems, you nerd!
And poetry's meant to be heard!
So read it aloud!
Alone -- if you're proud!
But so you can hear every word.

2933 ART - POETRY Larry J. Davis P8412

If I had a girl named Delores,
I would change my first name to Morris.
I would write poems of love;
They'd be sexy, sort of,
And these names rhyme quite well with clitoris!

2934 ART - POETRY Jim Weaver Collection

I bought it expecting suspense;
The let-down was quick and immense;
Though it rhymed very well,
And the words sounded swell,
Not a page of it make any sense.
(A Rhyming Dictionary)

2935 ART - POETRY Laurence Perrine P8409

The Voyage of the Ancient Mariner;
Two guys and a gal -- they were sharin' her.
'Tis true that the crew
Was bigger than two,
But more would have too much wear on her.

2936 ART - POETRY Jim Weaver Collection

Having rid Hamelin town of its vermin,
And been tricked by a noddy in ermine,
He lured girls and boys
With his pipe's pleasant noise.
Where they went not a soul can determine.

2937 ART - POETRY Ted Thompson

If you find for your verse, there's no call,
And you can't afford paper at all,
For the poet true-born,
However forlorn,
There's always the lavatory wall.

2938 ART - POETRY Anon G1365

Sometimes when I sit by the sea,
The sound of the waves breaking free,
Relaxes my mind
And induces a kind
Of transcendent reality.

2939 ART - POETRY Bob D

Winter's gone--ain't that some thing.
Birds are again on the wing!
But something's so odd,
I gotta ask God:
What have you done with our Spring?

2940 ART - POETRY Ogden Nield

There's a slow tolling bell in the dark,
As the keepers are clearing the park.
Like a desert, it's bare
And each tree and each chair
Is a blurred indeterminate mark.

2941 ART - POETRY Gavin Ewart

Life is sad and so slow and so cold
As the leaves that were green turn to gold,
As the lonely lake fills
And there's ice in the hills
And the long loathly winter takes hold...

2942 ART - POETRY Gavin Ewart

I wandered alone as a cloud,
And my feet pushed their way through a crowd
Of vile yellow weeds,
That nobody needs;
Those damned things should not be allowed.

2943 ART - POETRY Tutta Gioia

As I ambled along like a clod,
Those disgusting daffs I now trod.
With their foul slimy sap,
They really are crap;
I'll trample the bastards, by God!

2944 ART - POETRY Tutta Gioia

And those bloody clouds are a pain.
Yes, now it's beginning to rain.
I should be indoors
With a couple of whores.
They wouldn't be taxing my brain.

2945 ART - POETRY Tutta Gioia

Why did I come to Grassmere.
The countryside's so bloody drear.
I should be in town
At the old Rose and Crown, with a couple of pints of good beer

2946 ART - POETRY Tutta Gioia

And as for the fish in this lake,
No sign of a salmon or skate.
Just a minnow or sprat,
Not fit for the cat.
I could do with a good fillet steak.

2947 ART - POETRY Tutta Gioia

It's all due to my sister Dot,
That we're in this infernal spot.
She said she'd give head
When we went to bed,
But so far, the bitch, she has not.

2948 ART - POETRY Tutta Gioia

Xanadu's too expensive for Khan;
He's at work on converting a barn.
But there's talk of a dome,
And of rivers that roam,
Then drop down to an underground tarn.

2949 ART - POETRY Anon

A dome and some caves cut in ice,
Some rocks and a fountain sound nice;
But Alf -- he's the chippie --
Says Khan is quite dippy!
It still can't be done at that price!

My poetic muse now is dry
And no matter how hard that I try,
It just seems that today
I have nothing to say.
So for that I do apologi.

As you know, the most typical clerihew
Is an epitaph sort of a merry brew.
If you state, "Evidently,
It's a car, like a Bentley,"
Such a follly's enough -- well -- to bury you.

3052 ART - POETS John Miller

I too, cringe at some of the entries,
But we shouldn't be limerick sentries.
I know some are the shits;
They can't all be smash hits.
We should welcome and educate newbies.

3053 ART - POETS S C Saint

Lady J, we must not be so crass;
We can't kick them out on their ass,

Some people may think it's a con,
This new plan that I've hit upon.
But I'll now take the credit,
When you don't know who said it;
I changed my name to Anon.

3073 ART - POETS - 20TH CENT Richard Long

We don't care one whit
For poetry by permit.
Let the verse flow free
From the beach to the sea
And uphold the tradition of Ferlinghetti.
(Mayor Frank Jordan of S. F. on need of permit for poetry)

Send pics of your girlfriends sans pants,
And limericks when you get the chance.
Make sure that your copy
Is not getting sloppy,
And edit these shots of my manse.

But Golly, how rude can I be?
For limerick donation
Your grand compensation:
A year of our rag is on me!

3076 ART - POETS - 20TH CENT Irish

Oh Bob, it would be quite grand,
Our rhymes to be read through the land,
Mixed up with pudenda
Of various genda,
In a tome to be read with one hand.

3077 ART - POETS - 20TH CENT Irish

For an aging, medalioned, old voyeur,
You're nearly as smart as my lawyer.
I feel like a jerk,
Still going to work,
While Penthouse editors play Tom Sawyer.

3078 ART - POETS - 20TH CENT Irish

On my license it's stated quite clear
"This guy is poetic right here."
So give him some lenience
In his blatant disobedience
To the rules of good grammar, he's an artificeer.

3079 ART - POETS - 20TH CENT

A geezer with limericks would fiddle
Until he went to the hospital.
Now I'll be dadburned
If he hasn't returned,
Although "Why?" is a puzzling riddle.

3080 ART - POETS - 20TH CENT   Cybergeezer

Since early spring I've crept at snailish crawl,
To finish this stone fence good neighbors call
Good. Now the winds the stately birches bend
And I have miles to go before I end,
Someone there is who doesn't love a wall.

3081 ART - POETS - 20TH CENT

Thomas Stearns Eliot stated
That April's the month that he hated,
But apparently May
Was largely okay.
(His monthlies, perhaps, had abated.)

3082 ART - POETS - 20TH CENT   Norm Storer   P9812

Yes, I write with a quill as you see,
Since word processors all attack me.
Good enough for Mark Twain,
I then fain to retain,
And use what's user friendly to me.

3083 ART - POETS - 20TH CENT   Loren Fitzhugh   P0011

"Poor mariner, ruined and wrecked,
Are you wiser from taking your trek?"
"Yes I learned not to cross
Any old albatross
That happens to poop on my deck!"

3084 ART - POETS - ANCIENT MARINER Lassies Lover

A mariner, beard white as hoar,
Accosted me at the church door.
No, not that old matelot,
His story's old hat, lo,
I've told that fool's story before.

3085 ART - POETS - ANCIENT MARINER Tiddy Ogg

In days, when still young and precocious,
I tackled such things albatrocious,
When I'd time to dally,
And rhyme supercalli-
Fragelisticexpialidocious.

3086 ART - POETS - ANCIENT MARINER Tiddy Ogg

But now, as a very old man,
My wit's gone, I'm failing to scan.
My brain cells are crumbling;
I'm drooling and mumbling,
And scan and rhyme have gone to hell.

3087 ART - POETS - ANCIENT MARINER Tiddy Ogg

You see how this boring preamble,
Is becoming a tiresome ramble.
I must prove beyond doubt
That my mind's up the spout,
As my grey matter starts to unscramble.

3088 ART - POETS - ANCIENT MARINER Tiddy Ogg

So please gentle reader, reverse,
To line 1 similar verse,
That first line or two.
And while you so do,
I'll go off and fondle my nurse.

3089 ART - POETS - ANCIENT MARINER Tiddy Ogg

This sailor says: "Tids, once I sails,
From Swansea, down there in South Wales,
We all kiss Myfanwy,
The scrubber, and then we
Casts off on our venturesome trails."

3090 ART - POETS - ANCIENT MARINER Tiddy Ogg

At grammar these sailors are dense,
And speak always in present tense.
It makes reading hard,
So if you'll beg my pard-
on, I'll edit the rest, to make sense.

3091 ART - POETS - ANCIENT MARINER Tiddy Ogg

The ship she was called Mary's Dream,
Myfanwy like, broad in the beam.
She's rigged fore and aft,
With considerable draught,
As the wind whistled through every seam.

3092 ART - POETS - ANCIENT MARINER Tiddy Ogg

The helmsman, he aimed it at Dublin,
But his eyes, due to booze, were a-troublin',
So she veered south sou'east,
Till the gale at last ceased,
But the sea, through the hull, now was bubblin'.

3093 ART - POETS - ANCIENT MARINER Tiddy Ogg

A rock in the keel, a hole tore,
And in through that gash, sea did pour.
They all gave up hope,
But our Lem grabbed the soap,
And soon washed himself to the shore.

3094 ART - POETS - ANCIENT MARINER Tiddy Ogg

That joke, has been so long around,
It should, like the crew, now be drowned.
But ere memories fade,
It's source; He who played
His uke as the old ship went down.

3095 ART - POETS - ANCIENT MARINER Tiddy Ogg

He landed on shores Liliputian;
Found lots of wee fellows all rooshin',
One big little girlie,
With hair long and curly,
Barged through, 'spite cries "Stop Lily pooshin'."

3096 ART - POETS - ANCIENT MARINER Tiddy Ogg

He told them, "I'm Gulliver, Lemmy.
And though, as you sees, I am semi-
Literate, guys,
Because of my size,
I'm semi-god, (or is that demi?"

3097 ART - POETS - ANCIENT MARINER Tiddy Ogg

He came on like old Sonny Liston:
"I'll smash all that I lay my fist on.
Your future is dimmin';
I'll have all your women;
And all of you blokes will get pissed on."

3098 ART - POETS - ANCIENT MARINER Tiddy Ogg

Angels on head of a pin?
Well Gulliver, man full of sin,
Would let those gals dance
On the end of his lance,
But food's short, he's growing quite thin.

3099 ART - POETS - ANCIENT MARINER Tiddy Ogg

He wants, too, a real proper shag,
The tiny tit tickling does flag.
So in desperate hope,
He grabs his old soap
And floats off to old Brobdingnag.

3100 ART - POETS - ANCIENT MARINER Tiddy Ogg

The giants here, he doesn't find funny,
Nor I, 'cause that name isn't punny,
And he almost dies,
When to his surprise,
Some gal stuffs him right up her cunny.

3101 ART - POETS - ANCIENT MARINER Tiddy Ogg

Now don't say that I've overstated;
You think that such stuff is X-rated?
That last I did lift
Without change from J. Swift,
In Gulliver, unexpurgated.

3102 ART - POETS - ANCIENT MARINER Tiddy Ogg

Well, how he got home I don't know.
I'm bored with the fellow, and so,
I told him he's crackers,
Kicked him in the knackers,
And robbed him of all of his dough.

3103 ART - POETS - ANCIENT MARINER Tiddy Ogg

Killing a bird brought a curse,
The death of my crew and much worse --
A harrowing trip
On a devilish ship,
And an urge to recount it in verse.

3104 ART - POETS - ANCIENT MARINER Nicol Mackintosh

"My dear friend," exclaimed the Mad Hatter,
"Whatever is the matter?"
The doormouse said, "See,
"I've caught H.I.V."
You should have seen how fast they scatter!

3105 ART - POETS - CARROLL

Unfortunate timing had Alice,
With a vegetable substitute phallus.
Tweedle Dee in her heiny,
Mushroom stopped, she got tiny;
Leaving her wiser, but callus.

3106 ART - POETS - CARROLL   Jim Weaver Collection

Said the March Hare to Alice, "More tea?"...
"All move down, to make more cups dirty."
Said the Hatter. "It's Carroll
Who is over a barrel --
He'll be left to wash dishes, not me!"

3107 ART - POETS - CARROLL   Prof M-G

I Jabberwock, don't deserve dying;
My unhappy youth left me sighing.
It's true what they claim,
My eyes are of flame,
But yours are red, too, when you're crying.

3108 ART - POETS - CARROLL

An ignorant dork, Jabberwocky
Was no action, just blathering talky.
He caused his mom worry.
(His palms were all furry
From pulling his minuscule cocky.)

3109 ART - POETS - CARROLL

Young Alice in Wonderland is;
Her dreams have come true; it's the biz.
Indulging her habits
With horny white rabbits,
She can't get enough of their jizz.

3110 ART - POETS - CARROLL   Peter Wilkins

Said Dodgson, "Farewell, Alice Liddell.
Through logic, I'll solve my life's riddle.
Stay pure and unharried
And never get married;
The law of the excluded middle.

3111 ART - POETS - CARROLL   P Chernoff

What you drink is a matter of class;
Drink champagne and you're certain to pass.
But I think that L. Carrol,
Had been at the barrel,
When Alice threw the fucking glass.

3112 ART - POETS - CARROLL   Prof

That mathematical deacon
Named Dodgson just couldn't help peekin'
Up little girls' skirts,
(They were such awful flirts)
Just to see, if at all, they were leakin'.

3113 ART - POETS - CARROLL   TuttaGioia

"Christmas carols are not very funny,"
Said Lewis while clutching his bunny.
The White Rabbit replied,
"It's time that you tried
Rhymes erotic concerning my cunny."

3114 ART - POETS - CARROLL   Prof

That old pedophile Lewis Carroll,
Was sitting one day on a barrel.
Of course, on his knee
Was young Alice, and he
Had his hand in her skimpy apparel.

3115 ART - POETS - CARROLL   Tiddy Ogg

He said: "Now, you might think this funny;
In my pants here I've got a white bunny."
How long will it take,
Thought the old reprobate,
To get that thing into her cunny.

3116 ART - POETS - CARROLL   Tiddy Ogg

'Neath her knickers his old fingers stole,
Most expertly seeking their goal,
"Ah, Alice," said he,
"Right here now, I see,
A suitable bunny sized hole."

3117 ART - POETS - CARROLL   Tiddy Ogg

He opened his zip and said: "Lo!
Look at what I have here, don't you know.
Not a rabbit at all,
But a mushroom quite small,
If you nibble, you might make it grow."

3118 ART - POETS - CARROLL   Tiddy Ogg

The above, as you see very well,
Is the root of the tale he did tell.
When it came to his trial,
For abuse of the child,
He kept himself out of a cell.

3119 ART - POETS - CARROLL   Tiddy Ogg

For although he was mad as a hatter,
Through this interminable chatter,
About teapots and mice,
He covered his vice,
And Alice's claims did not matter.

3120 ART - POETS - CARROLL Tiddy Ogg

The jury found they could not keep
Alert, and they all fell asleep.
While the judge, on his throne,
Was getting a bone,
At the thought of that nymphette, the creep.

3121 ART - POETS - CARROLL Tiddy Ogg

At the end of this marathon plea,
The judge said "It seems, sir, to me,
I will let you go quite,
If you think that you might,
Persuade her to sit on my knee."

3122 ART - POETS - CARROLL Tiddy Ogg

So Alice, who quite knew the score,
Said "'Twill cost you five quid, maybe more,
And I want a rake-
Off of all that he'll make
Out of selling his fake fairy stor(y).

3123 ART - POETS - CARROLL Tiddy Ogg

In time Alice got very grand,
The richest whore in all the land,
And like that queen, red,
She sure loved to give head,
While the pounds mounted up in her hand.

3124 ART - POETS - CARROLL Tiddy Ogg

He ate her sweet hole and then spanked her;
He didn't know just how to thank her.
But it was all just a dream,
'Cause he woke up and screamed.
He'd apparently chewed off his wanker.

3125 ART - POETS - CARROLL   Tiddy Ogg

With Lewis's yarn I have quibbled
Since reading how young Alice nibbled
On a mushroom, then grew:
That's twisted if true,
And doesn't address which one dribbled.

3126 ART - POETS - CARROLL

Squandering time is to PIDDLE,
Dancing on hot riddle griddle.
Did young Lewis Carroll
Mind maths in his carrel,
When writing of li'l Alice Liddle?

3127 ART - POETS - CARROLL   Daniel Ford

When Lewis Carroll, with malice,
Fucked the bum of poor little Alice,
She screamed: "Don't go wild,
I'm just a wee child;
Do the one in Buckingham Palace!"

3128 ART - POETS - CARROLL

I had a young cousin named Alice
Who sure had a way with my phallus.
You'd think Lewis Carroll-
'D been in her apparel
'Cause of where she'd developed a callus.

3129 ART - POETS - CARROLL

This cousin would often entreat me
To play some strange games, like she'd seat me
In my birthday Suit
And make me look cute,
With a tag on my dick that said "Eat Me".

3130 ART - POETS - CARROLL

That elegant lyricist, Dante,
Was compromised, caught en flagrante.
He said, "'Twas delicto
To have my nib licked so...
And next time she's bringing her Aunty."

3131 ART - POETS - DANTE Lucy

The guy was a real vigilante;
I refer to the poet named Dante.
If you didn't do well,
He'd throw you in Hell.
He would do just the same for his aunty.

3132 ART - POETS - DANTE Al Willis

As he struggled to heaven from limbo,
Dante murmured to Beatrice, his bimbo,
"Sure, you want to scrimmage,
But think of my image,
Don't lie with your pussy akimbo."

3133 ART - POETS - DANTE

Dedicated to John Ciardi
Who had a passion that's hearty
For pasta and chianti --
Boccaccio and Dante,
Even when the imps grow farty.

3134 ART - POETS - DANTE Jim Jambor P9011

At age nine Dante saw Bea,
Struck by pure love was he.
Feckless was Dante;
Never lowered her panty
But loved her as a hound loves a tree.

3135 ART - POETS - DANTE Jim Jambor P9011

A gay poet named Sordello
Was really a very fun fellow.
I surmise that Dante
Found him quite handy.
And called him "Bibbe Novello."

3136 ART - POETS - DANTE Jim Jambor P9011

Dan stayed later than he should.
And he became lost in the wood.
He was confused.
He was not amused.
He wanted to schtup Bea, but good.

3137 ART - POETS - DANTE Jim Jambor P9011

Dante was told by old Virg'
"Without bran you need a purge.
A good defecation
Is like a vacation,
Appeases that heavenly urge."

3138 ART - POETS - DANTE Jim Jambor P9011

Guide Virgil said, "Well, well!
We are now at the gates of Hell.
Let's stop here for lunch.
They're a real fun bunch.
And it's dark, so no one can tell."

3139 ART - POETS - DANTE Jim Jambor P9011

What did the two poets see?
Paul and he drift endlessly
On an inner-spring cloud,
No sheet, cleat or shroud...
They were tactless as you must agree.

3140 ART - POETS - DANTE Jim Jambor P9011

In the library they had played footy,
Each proceeding up to the goody.
The enamored swain
Guzzled champagne,
The fool, from Fran's baby booty.

3141 ART - POETS - DANTE Jim Jambor P9011

Giovanni Mala Testa da Cazzo
Caught them in his marble palazzo.
His head sprouted horn
Without which he was born.
Jealousy drove the clod pazzso.

3142 ART - POETS - DANTE Jim Jambor P9011

Those star-crossed lovers in Rimini
Should have vacationed in Bimini.
The adulterous pair
Would be accepted there,
Like our Gary Hart, by jimminy!

3143 ART - POETS - DANTE Jim Jambor P9011

"Guardami, ben son', ben son' Beatrice!"
(Bea got this way from reading Nietzsche.)
"You made yourself mellow
Sporting with Sordello.
And now you think everything's peachy."

3144 ART - POETS - DANTE Jim Jambor P9011

I was stung by her complaint.
I fell into a dead faint.
It all becomes clear
As the stars in their sphere.
I hope it is, but I guess it ain't.

3145 ART - POETS - DANTE Jim Jambor P9011

It begins with a visit to hell,
Then to Purgatory as well;
There Dante, with leaven
Ascends into Heaven,
And it's all just as comic as hell!

3146 ART - POETS - DANTE Laurence Perrine P8409

A poet by name Alighieri
Had a penis just monstrously hairy.
When Beatrice, his chick,
Took a look at his prick,
She swore he would not pluck her cherry.

3147 ART - POETS - DANTE OgniGioia

Limericists, in Dante's scheme,
Are fed there on peaches and cream.
Old Satan's no fool.
He'd never be cruel
To those dipped in Pentatette's stream.

3148 ART - POETS - DANTE Chris Papa

In Florence the banning of books
Caused Dante to say, "Gadzooks!
If I wanted an inferno
I would have used sterno,
Like sensible outdoor cooks."

3149 ART - POETS - DANTE Barbara Spring TP9901

There was a young man said "Oh dear!
I'm not really a poet, I fear.
These limericks
Are just a quick fix;
It's all the fault of Edward Lear."

3150 ART - POETS - LEAR Richard Long

There once was a fellow called Lear
Whose verses were terribly drear.
All except that
With an owl and a cat,
Which is still quite a pleasure to hear.

3151 ART - POETS - LEAR John Wight

A salute to the limericks of Lear,
Now frequently read with a sneer.
If he seems out of date,
It's only the fate,
Of one who's a real pioneer!

3152 ART - POETS - LEAR The Limerick Book P9404

The limerick's birth is unclear;
Its genesis owed much to Lear.
It started as clean
But soon went obscene,
And this split haunts his later career.

3153 ART - POETS - LEAR

There once was an artist named Lear
Who wrote verses to make children cheer.
Though they never made sense,
Their success was immense,
And the Queen thought that Lear was a dear.

3154 ART - POETS - LEAR H. I. Brock

Although at the Limericks of Lear,
We may feel a temptation to sneer,
We should never forget
That we owe him a debt
For his work as the first pioneer.

3155 ART - POETS - LEAR Langford Reed

Let's all sing the praise of young Lear,
Whose limericks have brought so much cheer;
Though no Rudyard Kipling,
This fanciful stripling
Gave birth to the rhyme with the leer.

3156 ART - POETS - LEAR Norm Storer

One day, as folks stood on the pier,
They said, "That old man looks most queer!
From the shape of his nose,
And his twiddly toes,
We think it must be Mr. Lear."

3157 ART - POETS - LEAR Harold C Bibby

There was an old feline named Foss,
Who wished to share mice with his boss.
He'd bring one and purr
But Lear would demur,
On grounds they had run out of sauce.

3158 ART - POETS - LEAR Bill Cooke

There once was a person called Lear
Whose status is somewhat unclear,
For most think his name
Is entitled to fame,
Just for this which I illustrate her.

3159 ART - POETS - LEAR Mary Holtby P9401

Though of genius this may be a fitter sign,
One ought not all glory to it assign;
Zoological art
Was his line at the start
And his sitters were frequently psittacine. (parrots)

3160 ART - POETS - LEAR Mary Holtby P9401

His paintings such talent displayed
That a nobleman came to his aid.
'Dear Lear, are you willin'
To practice your skill in
My home--and in Rome--If I paid?

3161 ART - POETS - LEAR Mary Holtby P9401

This he does; and for children designs
Brief verses whose span he confines--
Though the space is made bigger
To fit in a figure--
To five biographical lines.

3162 ART - POETS - LEAR Mary Holtby P9401

This 'Nonsense' was followed by songs
About Jumbles and Pobbles and Dongs,
And that fine pair of beasts
To whose runcible feasts,
An immortal aroma belongs.

3163 ART - POETS - LEAR Mary Holtby P9401

Meanwhile throughout Europe he'd ride
And take Egypt and Greece in his stride.
Few landscapes escape a
Transmission to paper--
Till at last at San Remo he died.

3164 ART - POETS - LEAR Mary Holtby P9401

To the days of his pilgrimage here,
This depressive brought beauty and cheer,
And readers hereafter
Shall cry through their laughter:
'How pleasant to know Mr. Lear!'

3165 ART - POETS - LEAR Mary Holtby P9401

As the rhythm entices us here
To pay tribute to old Edward Lear,
Who invented the form,
Let us keep his seat warm
With a blanket of limerickal cheer!

3166 ART - POETS - LEAR Mary Sullivan

How nice of that dear Mr. Lear,
To invent a verse form that I fear,
Some people will use
Without any excuse,
For rhymes causing nudge, wink or leer.

3167 ART - POETS - LEAR Prof M-G

Number 30 Seymour Street swears
That it still has the floor and the stairs
Betrodden by Lear,
Who once lived here;
And if they are squeaking, who cares?

3168 ART - POETS - LEAR Bill Backe-Hansen P8808

Would Edward, our patron Saint, Lear
On reading what is printed here,
Rotate in his grave
And then mercy crave
Or would he, our patron Saint, Leer?

3169 ART - POETS - LEAR Irving Superior P8505

Mere nonsense no more, now that they've
Been used to corrupt anad deprave,
So that sound that you hear
Must be old Edward Lear,
As he slowly rotates in his grave.

3170 ART - POETS - LEAR Richard Long

There was an old fellow called Lear
Who existed on oysters and beer.
He traveled to Spain,
Never came back again,
But I think I can smell him from here!

3171 ART - POETS - LEAR

The pink buds have refused to unclose,
The aroma's not much to disclose.
Gardening's been luckless,
For Alice B. Toklas,
Still, a rose is a rose is a rose.

3172 ART - POETS - NAMED G0477

The late poet Wystan Hugh Auden,
Left us poems never maudl'n but mod'n.
The first things he wrote
Struck a socialist note,
But increasingly, then he let God'n.

Next day they got married,
Next month, she miscarried--
His philosophy kept him from frowning.

The best poets are all named Robert.
Most other poets make my ears hurt.
Just Burns and Frost;
The rest should get lost,
Along with the drivel they spurt.

A splendid young fellow was Byron
And truly a poet of Yron.
He fought for the Greek,
Admiring his cheek:
For it was the Turk that he'd Fyron.

3176 ART - POETS - NAMED Paul H LeBrun

His Lordship went wooing his sister
Or so it was said, when he kister;
Instead of a bow,
His aim was so low,
He tripped over his foot and so mister!

3177 ART - POETS - NAMED Paul H LeBrun

He swam in canals, and Lake Como;
Kept pets, and a Wop Major-domo.
This punky young Lord
Felt his pen was his sword:
So was he a Het. Or a Homo?

3178 ART - POETS - NAMED Paul H LeBrun

No, Listen, there's this albatross,
I shot him, he wasn't half cross.
He had the crew cursed; he

I'm ancient now. Tragic, eh, boss?

3179 ART - POETS - NAMED Bill Greenwell

I knocked long 'fore he turned back the door lock;
"Afternoon," I said, touching my forelock.
But Sam wouldn't chat;

So I took myself back home to Porlock.

3180 ART - POETS - NAMED Peter Wilkins

No more magic spell...
So died that bibacious Welsh bard.

E.A. Poe's betrothed, Ida Mae Flusher,

Although she didn't try,
What caught E.A. Poe's eye,

3185 ART - POETS - NAMED Loren Fitzhugh P9912

A wonderful writer was he,

And it shouldn't surprise
That his fame would arise;
The poet fits Poe to a "t".

Incessantly spoken.
Bird not house broken.
Its owner should call E. A. Poe.

Abstention now means--just say NO.
Unless you are E. Allen Poe.
Then, "Nevermore" will do,

Then back to his bells he would go.

I love thee; I've counted the ways.
With great breadth, thy cock has my praise.
I love thy prick's height

3189 ART - POETS - NAMED OgniGioia

With his pen and his ink, he
Made love -- (Rather kinky!)
Said Liz, "Let me count the ways."

It's certain the plot always thickens:

As for sex, though, it's mighty slim pickens.

Pip lived with his uncle, Joe Gargery,
And his aunt, who might well be named Marjorie.
The lad, in poor health
Used to play with himself,
So they thought, on the whole, by and largery...

3567 ART - PROSE - DICKENS

They'd send him off to an old biddy,
Who fancied a nice young male kiddy,
Name of Anne Hathaway,
Who once had it away,
With Bill Shakespeare, until he got giddy.

3568 ART - PROSE - DICKENS

And as he walks in with head bowed,
He finds a young tart, oh so proud.
And she is too haughty
To do anything naughty,
Though by heaven she is well endowed.

3569 ART - PROSE - DICKENS

This strumpet is named Esmeralda,
Not 'Stella as Charlie D. tells ya.
She's been bred for one part,
Just to break poor men's hearts,
But Pip feels his dong growing harder.

3570 ART - PROSE - DICKENS

Old Hathaway said "Are you able,
Young Pip, to perform on the table?
You could pull down your pants
And do the old dance,
With Esme attached to your cable."

3571 ART - PROSE - DICKENS

(The old dance, for those too naive,
Is the one that the serpent showed Eve,
Thus she taught her young man
That there's plenty you can
Do well, once you've shed your fig leaves.)

3572 ART - PROSE - DICKENS

But proud Esmeralda was coy.
She'd not soil herself with this boy.
So he grabbed the old crone,
And showed her his bone,
Which she took with the greatest of joy.

3573 ART - PROSE - DICKENS

That young lad was what she desired,
So she stripped of what she was attired.
But contact then came
'Twixt her dress and a flame,
Which in turn set the whole place afire.

3574 ART - PROSE - DICKENS

From then on it is quite a bore;
Young Pip, who has started so poor,
One day in the marsh,
Meets an Aussie called Arch,
And ends up with wealth in great store.

3575 ART - PROSE - DICKENS

'Cos this character antipodean,
Who fast from the law is now fleein',
Gets Pip a job,
Turns him into a snob,
A prig of a sub-human bein'.

3576 ART - PROSE - DICKENS

He meets up again with Estelle,
In London town where both now dwell,
But Pip still can't prise
His dong 'twixt her thighs,
'Cause Quasi has now rung her bell.

3577 ART - PROSE - DICKENS

Now for once Dickens was so witty,
And on Esme taking some pity,
A sequel he wrote,
'Bout the things 'neath her throat,
And he called it The Tale Of Two Titties.

3578 ART - PROSE - DICKENS

So there in the end I have got,
Almost the whole way through the plot.
I hope Charlie D.
Won't be too hard on me,
When we meet in that place that's so hot.

3579 ART - PROSE - DICKENS

A dick would do the same?
If so, what a shame;
It makes it much harder for blows.

Not two in a thousand,
So relax and don't be paranoid.

4515 ASTRONOMY - COLLISION Dr Limerick 11-07-00

A comet called "Shoemaker-three"
Dropped into the Caspian Sea;
Although it would pale
On the grand cosmic scale,
'Twas sufficient to vaporize me.

4516 ASTRONOMY - COLLISION Nick D Kim

Galileo was found a misfeasor
By that Cardinal Bellarmine geezer;
It was not for his balls,
That Pisa recalls,
But the fact he was thumbing his sneezer.

4517 ASTRONOMY - GALILEO

Galileo said, "My inquest proves
That the Earth is the object that moves.
But THE INQUEST, alas,
Will fry my mortal ass
If the power in Rome disapproves."

4518 ASTRONOMY - GALILEO William N. Nesbit P9707

In spite of the Vatican's dissuasion,
Galileo still rose to the occasion.
Though once deemed heretical,
He proved more prophetical,
Than those of the clerical persuasion.

4519 ASTRONOMY - GALILEO American Physical Society

Galileo built a telescope of brass;
Peered at Jupiter through his spy glass.
He sat there astounded;
Four moons were around it!
He was going to be famous at last.

4520 ASTRONOMY - GALILEO Tom Campbell

The ORRERY that was displayed,
On the scheme that Galileo made,
Was not the one done
Of Earth tailed by the Sun.
It left true believers dismayed.

4521 ASTRONOMY - GALILEO Chris Papa

The Inquisitors told Galileo,
"You're advised in the name of the trio
To recant your position
Else we'll bring to ignition
Flaming faggots, combusting con brio."

4522 ASTRONOMY - GALILEO Loren C Fitzhugh P0110

While watching a cannonball's motion,
Galileo conceived of the notion
That natural laws,
Not mystical cause,
Ruled the physical worlds locomotion.

4523 ASTRONOMY - GALILEO Martin Murphy

That sun-centered model, ORRERY,
Was surely greeted as horrory
And caused the maker
to flee Pope's raker,
And take up residence borderly.

4524 ASTRONOMY - GALILEO Daniel Ford

Galileo wrote his will upside down;
Church thought him heretical clown.
They tossed him in a cell,
Threatened him with Hell,
And ran his ass right out of town.

4525 ASTRONOMY - GALILEO Chris Papa

Though its own view was mostly confused,
The Church was not greatly amused
With this flaunting of Deo
By old Galileo,
And ordered it quickly defused.

4526 ASTRONOMY - GALILEO Rick Nelson

So the Pope sent some priests who inquired
If it wouldn't be best he retired?
"Undoubtedly you know
What we did for Bruno;
Do you also wish to be fired?"

4527 ASTRONOMY - GALILEO Martin Murphy

He asked an old Cardinal's opinion:
"Pray tell me, Your Grace, if you will then,
Does this mean what I think?
That henceforth I must shrink
From discussing my clever perception?"

4528 ASTRONOMY - GALILEO Martin Murphy

Said Bellarmine, "No, it is not a ban;
If you want to keep teaching of course you can.
They merely have said
To take care where you tread
And smile when you say thing Copernican."

4529 ASTRONOMY - GALILEO Martin Murphy

Unbeknownst to our venerable dissident
The records said something quite different.
When the Pope saw the note
The inquisitors wrote,
He lost what remained of his temperament.

4530 ASTRONOMY - GALILEO Martin Murphy

The message the Vatican sent
Was blunt in its stated intent:
"Recant all this heresy
Quick or we harass thee,
Now 'til your life has been spent."

4531 ASTRONOMY - GALILEO Martin Murphy

In facing the dread inquisition,
Few men could defend their position;
So it shouldn't surprise
When we are apprised
Of old Galileo's decision.

4532 ASTRONOMY - GALILEO Martin Murphy

"Explaining celestial motion
Needs more than just faith and devotion.
But to save my poor head
I'll recant what I've said,
Though I'll secretly keep to my notion".

4533 ASTRONOMY - GALILEO Martin Murphy

So our friend the illustrious Florentine
Spent his last years in Vatican quarantine;
Locked up in his home
By the prelates of Rome,
For being a cosmical libertine.

4534 ASTRONOMY - GALILEO Martin Murphy

The Church caused a major imbroglio
By correcting Copernicus' folio.
Yet it couldn't discern
The abuse it would earn
In forbidding the whole Dialogo?

4535 ASTRONOMY - GALILEO Martin Murphy

By killing Sidereus Nuncius
For the news that their views were defunctus,
The renaissance ended
And darkness descended
Upon the Dominican dunces.

4536 ASTRONOMY - GALILEO Martin Murphy

So the Pope sent some priests who inquired,
If it wouldn't be best if he retired.
"Undoubtedly you know
What we did to Bruno.
Do you wish also to be fired?"

4537 ASTRONOMY - GALILEO Martin Murphy

To scientists, my hat I doff,
But at spatial statistics, I scoff.
There's more dingleberries
Than butt holes. My worry's
The "ass to rhoid" ratio's off.

4538 ASTRONOMY - METEORS/COMETS Irish

We have radar for jet aviation,
And satellites, missiles, space stations;
Hundreds of telescopes
Surrounding the globe;
They all missed the stellar cremation.
(Bolide explosion over Atlantic)
4539 ASTRONOMY - METEORS/COMETS Dr Limerick

There's a comet that rates as a "10";
"Dirty snowball" it's called now and then.
They should take my advice,
Call the thing "Vanilla Ice";
It'll never be heard from again.
(Vanilla Ice - ephermal music group)

4540 ASTRONOMY - METEORS/COMETS Larry Hollister

Some folks in the east would have sworn,
That last evening's sky had been torn
By a bright fireball,
That streaked and did fall
On a field in PA full of corn.

4541 ASTRONOMY - METEORS/COMETS David Lauridsen

What was that strange UFO,
That caused the night sky to glow?
Well, the mystery is solved
And the question resolved.
Here's the answer, just so you'll know.

4542 ASTRONOMY - METEORS/COMETS David Lauridsen

To the spectators both far and near,
That are asking, "What did I hear?"
The boom and the flash
Was simply the crash
Of Gary Condit's career.

4543 ASTRONOMY - METEORS/COMETS David Lauridsen

Our world in the future, I fear,
So different, will likely appear;
With technology's change,
It will surely be strange,
That's if the damn planet's still here!

4544 ASTRONOMY - METEORS/COMETS Cap'n Bean

A stargazer out in St. Kitts,
Is often shook up, he admits.
An eclipse of the moon
Throws him into a swoon;
Shooting stars scare him out of his wits.

4545 ASTRONOMY - METEORS/COMETS

If this globe's ever scorched by a fire,
I will not lie down on a pyre.
So listen here fellows,
I'll get some marshmallows;
I'll enjoy this life ere I expire.
(And like Nero I'll strum on my lyre.)

4546 ASTRONOMY - METEORS/COMETS   Al Willis   P9809

A loony from Oldham has bet -
And a million to one he will get -
That on Aug 29
In 1999,
The world ends... How will he collect?

4547 ASTRONOMY - METEORS/COMETS   Jim Weaver Collection

There once was a Zetan named Nancy;
Plain physics did not strike her fancy.
She proclaimed Hale-Bopp
Was about to stop;
But right about now it looks chancy.

4548 ASTRONOMY - METEORS/COMETS   Craig Berry

If it hits while you're taking a bath,
And your tub is smack dab in the path,
Both the town's undertaker
And your Heavenly Maker
Are quite likely to have a good laugh.

4549 ASTRONOMY - METEORS/COMETS   Bob Birch   P9809

I stand awestruck and watch Hale-Bopp pass
Musing, two thousand years will amass
Till its next scheduled run
With tail aimed at the sun.
That's a long time to be passing gas.

4550 ASTRONOMY - METEORS/COMETS   Loren C. Fitzhugh   P9705

I wouldn't have missed Hale-Bopp, not on a bet --
The most spectacular comet seen yet!
Across the street, one starry night,
I went to avoid the bright street light,
And to get as close to it as I could get!

4551 ASTRONOMY - METEORS/COMETS   Monique de Plume

Driving home in my '64 Chevy,
I was struck by a thought that was heavy:
What if good old Hale-Bopp
From the heavens should drop,
It would cream us like Shoemaker-Levy!

4552 ASTRONOMY - METEORS/COMETS   Larry Hollister

For months now, dear Nancy has said,
"You act just like sheep who've been led."
A claim so patho-illogical,
Like her posts pedagogical,
I think she's been Hale-Bopped on the head.

4553 ASTRONOMY - METEORS/COMETS   Mark Gingrich

There was an old comet in space
That had a long tail, but no face.
Said the comet one day,
"I like being this way.
If you want to know why, sent a SASE."
(SASE - self addressed stamped envelope)

4554 ASTRONOMY - METEORS/COMETS   Sam Shaffe   P8512

As I wait for the comet named Halley
(Or Halley, 'though I prefer Halley),
I'll practice this daily
To orate like a Yalie:
"Ave atque vale, comet Halley!"

4555 ASTRONOMY - METEORS/COMETS   Bill Railford   P8512

From the world, his discovery brought cheers;
From his wife, it brought nothing but tears;
"For you see," said Ms. Halley,
"He used to come daily,
Now its once every 76 years."

4556 ASTRONOMY - METEORS/COMETS   Arthur Deex   P0103

From the world, his discovery brought cheers
From his wife, it brought nothing but tears
For you see, said Ms. Halley
He loved dilly dally,
Now its once every 76 years.

4557 ASTRONOMY - METEORS/COMETS   Arthur Deex   P0103

It was last nineteen-ten when on high
Halley's comet appeared in the sky.
Those were halcyon days,
But our present "malaise"
Makes the comet pass rapidly by.

4558 ASTRONOMY - METEORS/COMETS   Mitzi C. Kuehl   P8512

Halley's comet can be seen in the sky,
Provided that you're sober or dry.
But drink a few drinks
And wink a few winks
And ten tails will appear on the sly.

4559 ASTRONOMY - METEORS/COMETS   Baumhaft & Fowler   P8512

Halley's comet again rides the sky,
Arcing above us on high.
An impressive sight,
But during the night
It's the length of the tail makes me sigh.

4560 ASTRONOMY - METEORS/COMETS   June Sullivan   P8512

Dame Halley said, "Dear, 'twould be nice
To land on that planet a trice.
It sure wouldn't hurt
To have some of that dirt
To mix with this fire and ice."
(1st prize, 85 Integra contest)

4561 ASTRONOMY - METEORS/COMETS   W P Williams   P8512

World War I, Hitler's rise, World War II.
Viet Nam was a real witches' brew!
Yet, I'd like to be here
In that magical year
When Halley's comet comes due.

4562 ASTRONOMY - METEORS/COMETS   Mitzi C. Kuehl   P8512

Halley's Comet came spiralling down,
And landed on top of George Brown.
He shouted rude names
And burst into flames;
Now he's the toast of the town.

4563 ASTRONOMY - METEORS/COMETS   Bill Wall

Sometimes from the outer spaces,
A comet visits sunny places.
As it is warmed,
A tail is formed
That leaves behind some dusty traces.

4564 ASTRONOMY - METEORS/COMETS   Parisi and Dye

There once was a comet named Linear,
As bright as Praesepe, but skinnier.
It broke up one day
In a fragmentary way,
And now it can't be found anywhere.

4565 ASTRONOMY - METEORS/COMETS   Tom Campbell

A meteor once came to pass,
And it landed right here, on the grass.
As I sat on the bowl
Of my outhouse's hole,
The debris traveled right up my ass.

4566 ASTRONOMY - METEORS/COMETS   Cap'n Bean   P9809

My state was visited by a meteor;
They say it landed on the desert floor.
Many saw it, they said,
All flaming and red.
They want to find it, I don't know what for

4567 ASTRONOMY - METEORS/COMETS

In the darkest part of the wee hours,
Away from the town's candlepower,
If you got out of bed,
You'd have seen, overhead,
The Leonid Meteor Shower.

4568 ASTRONOMY - METEORS/COMETS   Dr Limerick 11-19-01

I was watching the heavens one night
When I glimpsed an object quite bright.
The meteor streaked down
Without making a sound,
And promptly disappeared out of sight.

4569 ASTRONOMY - METEORS/COMETS   Tom Campbell

I was in my yard cutting the grass
When it came in amazingly fast
I know where it fell
I'm embarrassed to tell
The damn thing buried itself up my ass.

4570 ASTRONOMY - METEORS/COMETS

Bill Clinton was grabbed by a cop:
"From smoking that weed you must stop."
"I don't, sir, feel high,
Like that thing in the sky;
I swear I did not inHale-Bopp."

4571 ASTRONOMY - METEORS/COMETS

This thing that's called Halley's Comet,
I wouldn't make wishes upon it.
I would hesitate
To base my whole fate,
Or even to comment upon it.

4572 ASTRONOMY - METEORS/COMETS M Hale

I doubt if you could ever pawn it;
This fuzz-ball idea of a comet.
Passers-by it
May pause to eye it,
But I cannot think of who'd want it.

4573 ASTRONOMY - METEORS/COMETS M Hale

The media now will flaunt it.
Some fool will then write a sonnet.
We looked high and low
For the spectacular show,
And right there it was, dog-gone it.

4574 ASTRONOMY - METEORS/COMETS M Hale

From down out of the sky came a rock,
It's full impact was felt for a block,
And she came as it hit,
While he yelled out "Oh Shit!"
As they felt the earth move from the shock.

4575 ASTRONOMY - METEORS/COMETS Bob Birch P9809

There was a professor named Sagan,
Who pondered how life did begin.
"From the stars we did come,
And when we are done,
Our death is another's origin."

4576 ASTRONOMY - PEOPLE Tom Campbell

Astronomers were full of emotions,
Trying to predict orbital motions.
Copernicus solved the riddle:
He put the Sun in the middle,
And laid to rest all other notions.

4577 ASTRONOMY - PEOPLE Tom Campbell

"Copernicus, this is a hoax.
Although it may bamboozle some folks,
That the Earth circles round
Its own Sun, does sound
Like one of your damned Polish Jokes."

4578 ASTRONOMY - PEOPLE A. N. Wilkins P8908

Copernicus gave his reply
To those who had pledged to deny.
"All your additions
To ancient convictions
Won't bring back your place in the sky."

4579 ASTRONOMY - PEOPLE David Morin et al

Stephen Hawking's "no boundary" condition
Puts God in an awkward position.
With nothing to do,
His purpose is through,
So He might as well fix my transmission.

4580 ASTRONOMY - PEOPLE Kay R Devicci

Said that well-known cosmologist Hawking:
"Stop arguing, cut out the squawking.
If you're asking who knows
How the universe goes,
Then you'd better let me do the talking.

4581 ASTRONOMY - PEOPLE Joan M Freeman P0111

A clever professor named Hoyle
After decades of study and toil,
To prominence sprang
Saying, "Hang the BIG BANG",
He was never Astronomer Royal.

4582 ASTRONOMY - PEOPLE Odd Bodikins P0109

In youth, his hair grew like a weed,
But Old Hubble was balding, indeed.
"I know that I ought

Then my hairline will never recede."

4583 ASTRONOMY - PEOPLE Devlin Gualtieri

There once was a Bell engineer
Named Jansky, who had a good ear.
When the Archer was high,
His radio would cry;
"It's coming from space", he would cheer.

4584 ASTRONOMY - PEOPLE Tom Campbell

An eminent scientist, Jeans,
Expounds what "The Universe" means.
His views about God
Are held to be odd,
By numerous bishops and deans.

4585 ASTRONOMY - PEOPLE Jim Weaver Collection

Johannes Kepler's First Law was this:
Orbits aren't round, but ellipse.
With the Sun at one foci,
The planets do fly by,
And achieve harmonious bliss.

4586 ASTRONOMY - PEOPLE Tom Campbell

Elliptical orbits were still on his mind,
So the Second Law he quickly devined:
When plotting their motion,
He got the notion
Of equal area in equal time.

4587 ASTRONOMY - PEOPLE Tom Campbell

The Third Law is hard to discuss;
But understand it we must.
When two planets are compared,
The ratio of their periods squared
Is the cube of there orbital radius.

4588 ASTRONOMY - PEOPLE Tom Campbell

Astronomers have their own goals
To discover Sol's holes and their roles,
As they gaze in the sky,
But I want to know why
The earth has so many assholes.

4589 ASTRONOMY - PEOPLE

If one took the time to compare
The sum of the roots of the square
Of the distance proportional
To forces distortional,
You'd see assholes just come from thin air.

4590 ASTRONOMY - PEOPLE

The next question is where do they go.
Well the answer I'm sure we all know.
As one might have suspected,
They all get elected
And turn up on Larry King's show.

4591 ASTRONOMY - PEOPLE

Hawking couldn't walk, it is true.
But his brain needed something to do.
So he thought about mass
And collapsed balls of gas,
And his reputation sure grew.

4592 ASTRONOMY - PEOPLE Tom Campbell

Brahe, astronomer extraordinaire,
Pursued heavenly bodies with flair.
His interests astronomical
Had relevance anatomical:
He had Stella, his helper, go bare!

4593 ASTRONOMY - PEOPLE Macsam

For years, Brahe sat down on one spot;
Orbital positions he decided to plot.
He was able to pin it
To within an arcminute,
And helped the astronomers a lot.

4594 ASTRONOMY - PEOPLE Tom Campbell

Trans-Neptunian object? No dice!
Folks on Pluto reacted with ice.
The attack they did mount;
Forced a NASA recount:
Back to nine planets; eight don't suffice!

4595 ASTRONOMY - PLANETS Prof M-G

An astronaut, trained and adroit,
The frontiers of space did exploit.
He could walk with disdain
On the moon's bleak terrrain,
But could not walk the streets of Detroit.

4596 ASTRONOMY - PLANETS Albin Chaplin 3024 P8211

The earth is quite tilted, we know,
As around our own Sun it does go.
At twenty three point five degrees,
It spins with such ease,
And changes the seasonal show.

4597 ASTRONOMY - PLANETS Tom Campbell

We all know the planet called Earth.
We call it the home of our birth.
Seas, mountans, and air,
Life is found everywhere.
It's a planet of obvious worth.

4598 ASTRONOMY - PLANETS Parisi and Dye

If the earth should explode in the air,
We will all go to join Fred Astaire.
The planet's so small,
It won't matter at all.
The universe really won't care.

4599 ASTRONOMY - PLANETS Al Willis

This pure nonsense verse will mayhap please,
Though it could make some feel ill at ease.
Said the Man in the Moon
Viewing earth in late June,
"From up here it resembles Green Cheese."

4600 ASTRONOMY - PLANETS Loren Fitzhugh P0207

Eclipses were once fairly cryptic,
But now they require no great mystic.
It happens, as a rule,
When with New Moon or Full,
Occurs while it's on the ecliptic.

4601 ASTRONOMY - PLANETS Tom Campbell

There was an old woman from Pismo
Who invented a wonderful gizmo,
That caused men of girth

That points a immense global cap at us.
Then it convulses and shakes
Its immense molten lakes,
And ejects steaming jets of hot crap at us.

4604 ASTRONOMY - PLANETS Chuck Davis

The largest planet is Jupiter.
I learned about it on my computer.
Clouds twisting orange
Like rust on a door hinge;
Before I knew this, I was stupider.

4605 ASTRONOMY - PLANETS Parisi and Dye

Jupiter's largest of all;
A hydrogen helium ball.
Twisting clouds humor us;
Moons that are numerous;
Comparing the two, Earth is small.

4606 ASTRONOMY - PLANETS Parisi and Dye

Mars is the planet that's red.
It might have had life, but looks dead.
It's dusty and rusty
With winds that are gusty.
It's cold there so cover your head.

4607 ASTRONOMY - PLANETS Parisi and Dye

There once was a fellow named Percival;
An astronomer most unmerciful.
But instead of the stars,
He kept looking at Mars,
And thought the canals were immersible.

4608 ASTRONOMY - PLANETS Tom Campbell

A small rock once fell from the sky;
It carried a message from high.
I come from the stars,
I'm your father from Mars,
So give me a hug, and say Hi!

4609 ASTRONOMY - PLANETS Cathy Anderson

There's a planet we know we call Mercury;
It orbits the Sun in a hurry.
Only eighty-eight days
To go 'round all the way.
It's a wonder it doesn't look blurry.

4610 ASTRONOMY - PLANETS Parisi and Dye

A beautiful cobalt blue,
Neptune's a planet, it's true.
With winds that blow fast
And blizzards of frozen gas,
Its eight moons must have quite a view!

4611 ASTRONOMY - PLANETS Parisi and Dye

Pluto's the farthest of all.
Compared to the rest, it is small.
Of features and such,
We don't know very much,
Because Pluto is such a small ball!

4612 ASTRONOMY - PLANETS Parisi and Dye

Of beautiful Saturn I sing,
A light fluffy puffball type thing.
We know from the math,
It would float in the bath.
Of course, it would leave a big ring.

Exploring the cosmic frontier.
In this coming of age,
We turn in our cage,

4620 ASTRONOMY - PLANETS Irving Superior P9203

4621 ASTRONOMY - PLANETS Friar

I suppose everybody's all seen us
Discussing these issues of Venus,
But I must make clear,
That everyone here
Expected a mention of penis.

4622 ASTRONOMY - PLANETS

An Earth-sized planet is Venus,
But there's not much in common between us.
Acid clouds keep it hot;
A paradise it's not.
On Venus the weather is heinous!

4623 ASTRONOMY - PLANETS Parisi and Dye

There was a star gazer of Burton,
Whose answers were rather uncertain;
When they said, "How is Venus?"
He thought they said, "Penis"
And answered, "The darn thing's been hurtin'"

4624 ASTRONOMY - PLANETS Edwardian Leer 100

I'm so glad, I declare,
That we do not live there,
For I fear that we all would be dead.

4625 ASTRONOMY - PLANETS Albin Chaplin 3024 P9708

Uranus rolls 'round on its side,
With rings that stretch far and wide.
A big ball of gas,

It's the name that I just can't abide.

4626 ASTRONOMY - PLANETS - URANUS Parisi and Dye

"When I noticed the satellite's grayness
In space," said astronomer Janus,
"Perineum's the name

4627 ASTRONOMY - PLANETS - URANUS

Embarrassed and terribly shy,
His mother, she started to cry,
When astronomer Fred
Yelled, "Hey, Mom, look ahead -
Uranus is up in the sky!"

4628 ASTRONOMY - PLANETS - URANUS Cap'n Bean

No doubt you may think this absoid,
But Uranus is red (have you hoid?)
No wonder it's red;
It's due to bloodshed.
It has a great big hemorrhoid.

4629 ASTRONOMY - PLANETS - URANUS Jim Weaver Collection

An astronomy student named Yearly
Said he thought his girl acted queerly
When he told his delight
"I was counting tonight
Upon seeing Uranus more clearly."

4630 ASTRONOMY - PLANETS - URANUS   Arthur Wilkins   P8911

To his wife said astronomer Janus.
"New facts from the skies entertain us.
Those farts heard on the moon
Did not come from Rangoon.
I suspect that they came from Uranus.

4631 ASTRONOMY - PLANETS - URANUS   Al Chaplin   P8507

An astronomer, pious but odd
(To be honest, a dirty old sod),
Who'd searched for a sign

Cried, "I've just found Uranus, dear God!"

4632 ASTRONOMY - PLANETS - URANUS   Linda Marsh Coll

And the rings I have seen on Uranus."

4633 ASTRONOMY - PLANETS - URANUS   Albin Chaplin   3024-2133

4634 ASTRONOMY - PLANETS - URANUS   H Welchel

4637 ASTRONOMY - STARS/NEBULAE   Lynn Mostafa

Alpha centauri's a binary star,
The distance to which is quite far.
Said Einstein one night,
"To measure, use light.
Then it's only 4.3 Jahr!"

4638 ASTRONOMY - STARS/NEBULAE   Chris Matthews   P0111

Will a space alien from afar
Think the human race is less than par?
Should we be ashamed
Just because we have named
Our galaxy for a candy bar?

4639 ASTRONOMY - STARS/NEBULAE   Tom Patton   P9707

Cassiopeia said, "Sorry to trouble you,
But I find that I'm seeking another view,
As to what eyes do see
Looking skyward for me,
And all they can find is a double-u."

4640 ASTRONOMY - STARS/NEBULAE Ystap TP9802

A brown stain, persistent as moles,
Surrounds where them queers poke their poles.
Astronomers heed:
I've oft done the deed --
That's why Sol's corona has holes.

4641 ASTRONOMY - STARS/NEBULAE

There once was greedy old star
Who ate all the mass, near and far.
It finally off-gassed
A huge stinky blast,
And that's why we are what we are.

4642 ASTRONOMY - STARS/NEBULAE

Our galaxy's a glorious sight;
Millions of stars help it shine bright.
Called the Milky Way,
It's gone during the day,
But shows up quite nicely at night.

4643 ASTRONOMY - STARS/NEBULAE Tom Campbell

M42 is a nebula grand;
It has the shape of a fan.
Inside are four suns
That make a trapezium,
Each sparkling like dew in the sand.

4644 ASTRONOMY - STARS/NEBULAE Tom Campbell

William Herschel worked hard in the night;
For discovering Uranus, he became a knight.
But his nebulae catalog
Made astronomers all agog;
Even today, it can cause delight.

4645 ASTRONOMY - STARS/NEBULAE   Tom Campbell

The astronomer, "Specious" McBain,
Who, for the treasured Nobel did fain,
Couldn't prove that he saw
Change in Andromeda,
For he found data keeping a strain.

4646 ASTRONOMY - STARS/NEBULAE   Loren Fitzhugh   P0208

An astronomer from far Arecibo
Saw life in the region of Leo.
They said it was clear
That the local strong beer,
Was more than a gentle placebo.

4647 ASTRONOMY - STARS/NEBULAE   Mike O'Conner

Long ago, the econ profession
Thought sunspots could cause a depression,
By ruining crops,
But now commerce stops
When solar flares fuzz up transmissions.

4648 ASTRONOMY - STARS/NEBULAE   Dr Limerick 03-31-01

An astronomer, down in his cellar,
Told his girlfriend he wanted to smell 'er.
So she took off her clothes,
And he buried his nose,
And exclaimed, "Your aroma is stellar?"

4649 ASTRONOMY - STARS/NEBULAE   Cap'n Bean

Said an astronaut stuck in his Gemini,
"I'm afraid, as things stand presently,
The latch on the hatch
Has a catch that won't catch --
And the view may be getting more heavenly."

4650 ASTRONOMY - STARS/NEBULAE   Richard Rhodes   P8211

Say a a cheer for a Taurean male!
As a bed-mate light-years past the pale;
Us hornier cows're
The first to shout "Yowsa!"
Let's all grab the bull by the tail!"

4651 ASTRONOMY - STARS/NEBULAE   Robin K. Willoughby P8905

A man whose studies were Zodiacal,
Of an intensity almost maniacal,
Would often stare
At Ursa the Bear,
The major of which is Kodiacal.

4652 ASTRONOMY - STARS/NEBULAE   L Kintz

A million billion stars are swirling.
A trillion zillion planets are twirling.
How conceited we be
To think that only we
Here, have intelligence unfurling.

4653 ASTRONOMY - STARS/NEBULAE   Lynn Mostafa

High velocity clouds can be found
And in galaxies' disks they abound.
Now although superbubbles
Have given great troubles,
The model called "fountain" is sound.

4654 ASTRONOMY - THEORY

An astonaut, Captain McTavity,
Maintained that it was not depravity
Which made men on the flight
Laugh and chuckle all night,
But merely the absence of gravity.

4655 ASTRONOMY - THEORY A. N. Wilkins P8406

Our Sun is a hot ball of gas,
Which has a medium mass.
It will someday explode
When it grows old,
And will become a white dwarf, alas.

4656 ASTRONOMY - THEORY Tom Campbell

Darwinians worry me so;
They say the Lord is a no-no.
But this bright new gang
Studied the Big Bang,
Found a sound, just before, that went "Uh, Oh!"

4657 ASTRONOMY - THEORY Gunjan Saraf

An astronomiss happily sang,
"I've been screwed by the telescope gang,
They all had a bit o' me,
For I'm the epitome
Of the grandly impressive Big Bang."

4658 ASTRONOMY - THEORY Isaac Asimov

Using this technique, physicist Leary,
Solved a cosmological query.
He marshalled his facts
As he reached his climax,
Which is why it is called Big Bang Theory.

4659 ASTRONOMY - THEORY

Great minds have been known to recite,
Or in papers they publish, to write
That before time began,
There occurred a Big Bang --
But the theory is always a fright!

4660 ASTRONOMY - THEORY Chris Marks

There was a materialist who,
When asked how the universe grew
Said "Cos theta sin phi
By the cube root of pi
All over factorial Q."

4661 ASTRONOMY - THEORY Geoffery Martin

Said a deep thinking Fellow of Trinity
Replied: "That is pure asininity.
Nay, rather I'd say
It's the xth power of j
Divided by minus inifinity."

4662 ASTRONOMY - THEORY Geoffery Martin

Science said a Big Bang was recorded;
Is outer space too getting sordid?
It banged Ursa Major,
Then sought to engage her;
"I'm innocent," Clinton retorted.

4663 ASTRONOMY - THEORY

Earth quivers and quakes every day,
In relations with Sol, so some say.
Does the Earth get its rocks
On rude aftershocks,
Or is this just cosmic foreplay.

4664 ASTRONOMY - THEORY John Miller 0341

I wonder who turned off the lights;
I wonder who cause us such frights.
With the prices so high,
I have to ask, "Why?
Can't we simply eliminate nights?"

4665 ASTRONOMY - THEORY Bob Birch P0105

The end of the planet is nigh
For that great fiery ball up on high
Means we're doomed to be...Eh?
What's that did you say?
Are you sure that's the Sun in the sky?

4666 ASTRONOMY - THEORY Peter Wilkins

In Nineteen Ninety Nine, my dear friend,
The world as we know it, will end.
Be it nuke or a comet,
Mountain base, summit,
These thought can drive you 'round the bend.

4667 ASTRONOMY - THEORY Mushroom

Some believe these predictions are pith,
And have salt to take them a pinch with.
But I think it is true,
Just between me and you,
It'll end on September the fifth!

4668 ASTRONOMY - THEORY Mushroom

Said a Flat Earth guy, "Well, I'll be dipped!
Global Warming should surely be skipped.
If we like it or not,
When the Earth gets too hot,
Like a pancake we'll just have it flipped."

4669 ASTRONOMY - THEORY Tom Patton P0310

The Flat Earth Society chief
Today heaved a sigh of relief.
"The talk of global warming
To us is no warning,
'Cause the globe's a ficticious belief."

4670 ASTRONOMY - THEORY Arnie Schoenbrun P0309

God said, "I find no delight
In my constant H's sad plight.
Is it high? is it low?
They simply don't know.
(And I'm not quite sure which is right.)
(Hubble constant)

4671 ASTRONOMY - THEORY David Halliday

The cosmos according to Hubble
Expands like the soap of a bubble.
Let's hope it's not closed;
It would then be disposed
To shrink down to zero, and that's trouble.

4672 ASTRONOMY - THEORY David Morin et al P0111

Asked Kepler, "Is it a mere notion
Or a strange result of that potion
Which I last ingested.
Besides being bested
My head spins in unlawful motion."

4673 ASTRONOMY - THEORY Loren C. Fitzhugh P9707

As the cosmos expands, growing flatter,
The cosmologists argue and chatter
About that which he knows,
Or massive neutrinos --
They want to know what's the (dark) matter.

4674 ASTRONOMY - THEORY K R Devicci P0111

The accountant was ranting and hissing!
Such an audit was not of our wishing!
But such was our state,
An astronomer's fate,
Since some of our mass was found missing.

4675 ASTRONOMY - THEORY Devlin Gualtieri

There was an old man who observed,
"I confess I am somewhat unnerved.
I had never before
Seen the truth of the lore
That, where matter is, space must be curved!

4676 ASTRONOMY - THEORY Jim Weaver Collection

An object which travels in space,
A circular orbit will trace.
Yet notions persist
That a force does exist
Which makes a straight path commonplace.

4677 ASTRONOMY - THEORY Albin Chaplin 3024 P9708

Our Sun is a hot ball of gas,
Which has just a medium mass.
It will someday explode
When it gets too old,
When it becomes a White Dwarf, alas.

4678 ASTRONOMY - THEORY Tom Campbell

There was a professor called Dingle,
Who made physicist's nerve-endings tingle.
His travelling clocks
Caused grave mental blocks,
In those who felt time should stay single.

4679 ASTRONOMY - THEORY

With reference to certain grave matters,
Our nebulous suddenly shatters.
Just then with great awe,
I suddenly saw
That our vacuum now shows up in tatters.

4680 ASTRONOMY - THEORY Baxter Sperry P0111

Velikovsky's adherents take pride
In past worlds inclined to collide.
Though not in compliance
With canons of science,
They cite more than facts can provide.

4681 ASTRONOMY - THEORY Paul Niquette

Velikovsky the ephemerist
Must be daft as a brush to insist
That Venus collided
With Mars and then glided
To where, to this day, it persists.

4682 ASTRONOMY - THEORY Alexander Baron

Or perhaps the poor fellow was drunk,
Or as mad as an old Tsarist monk.
For when one analyses
His weirdo surmises,
And theories, they show up as bunk!

4683 ASTRONOMY - THEORY Alexander Baron

But the men with a scientific yen
Won themselves little credit back then,
By the paranoid treatment
They gave to his statement,
Supressing the works of his pen.

4684 ASTRONOMY - THEORY Alexander Baron

We've come to expect men of science
To insist on the total compliance
Of the community
With the way that they see
Laws and theorems: God help the defiants.

4685 ASTRONOMY - THEORY Alexander Baron

For it seems that religion has not
Quite a total monopoly got
Of the bigoted type
Who deprecate as tripe
The less-orthodox reasoning lot.

4686 ASTRONOMY - THEORY Alexander Baron

Because Science is an oligarchy,
And the scientists are despots who see
Every man in the street
As outside the elite,
If he has not a college degree.

4687 ASTRONOMY - THEORY Alexander Baron

Point of interest for scientists not clergy,
Darwinians to Physicists in synergy;
From Richard Dawkins
To Stephen Hawkins,
Ask what came first -- mass or energy.

4688 ASTRONOMY - THEORY Gunjan

I guess the CONUNDRUM's the same,
If one plays the "go back there" game.
Before there was matter,
Or even light scatter,
What's there before energy came?

4689 ASTRONOMY - THEORY Chris Papa

On cosmology I'll not pretend,
So it's questions that I have to send.
Where the universe starts
And what are its parts,
And where could it possibly end?

4690 ASTRONOMY - THEORY Bob Birch P0111

Einstein's theory and the speed of light,
Have proven to be exactly right.
But there are no clues
Who lit the 'Big Bang' fuse
That awesome prehistoric night.

4691 ASTRONOMY - THEORY Al Cape Town

An intergalactic explorer,
While sleeping, was such a loud snorer,
Astronomers heard
Her and wrongly inferred
A new radio-wavelength aurora.

4692 ASTRONOMY - VIEWING/SCOPES Anon

The night was as clear as could be.
I ran inside shouting "Yippee!"
Came back out with my scope,
Set it up, like a dope,
And noticed the sky had turned cloudy.

4693 ASTRONOMY - VIEWING/SCOPES Tom Campbell

My daughter this night called to me:
Come look, Mom! The moon you must see.
The night sky's dark hue;
A breathtaking view.
A celestial display, all for free.

4694 ASTRONOMY - VIEWING/SCOPES Jenni Saqua

Hervelius on a clear night did view
Through the scope on a pole hanging true,
That due to a subordinate,
The flexture was inordinate
And the back of his head was on view.

4695 ASTRONOMY - VIEWING/SCOPES   MEK

Iridescently glowing enthrall,
In that vastness unreal.
As I look up I feel
Insignificant, humble and small.

I dream of a night on the sea --
Just one universe and one me.
The running lights out,
And no moon about --
Frightened, awe-smitten, and free.

4699 ASTRONOMY - VIEWING/SCOPES   H Whelchel

An astronaut fixing the Hubble
Chewed gum and got into some trouble.
He floated away
And his crewmates would say,
That he should not have blown such a bubble.

4700 ASTRONOMY - VIEWING/SCOPES   Richard Long

Pictures from the telescope Hubble
Cause our scientists too much trouble.
The lens, in reverse
Makes our universe

I love to gaze up at the stars.
The sky that we're under

Galaxies! Nebulas! Mars!

4702 ASTRONOMY - VIEWING/SCOPES   Ellen

Yellow orb to the heavens ascends,
Sweet mantle of warmth now extends;
Sun dance o’er treetops,
Citron eye of Cyclops,
Staring down on green fields as it wends.

4704 ASTRONOMY - VIEWING/SCOPES   Joel D Ash

Bright noon with the sun at its height,
White light of our shining birthright;
No cloud up above,
Scintillation thereof,
Brilliant sparkles of blinding sunlight.

4705 ASTRONOMY - VIEWING/SCOPES Joel D Ash

The afternoon shimmer pervades,
The splendor and dazzle cascades;
Ablaze in the blue,
Radiance, golden hue,
Nature basking below in warm glades.

4706 ASTRONOMY - VIEWING/SCOPES Joel D Ash

The end of the day is at hand,
Sun fades as the shadows expand;
Gleaming sunset, red blush,
Final soft glowing flush,
Then the light rays in darkness disband.

4707 ASTRONOMY - VIEWING/SCOPES Joel D Ash

The moon reflects the sun's light;
When Full, it can really be bright.
Astronomers like it New
Or it cuts out the view
Of the fainter objects at night.

4708 ASTRONOMY - VIEWING/SCOPES Tom Campbell

An English astronomer named Herschel,
Was considered to be contraversial.
As he looked to the sky,
Telescope to his eye,
He was told he was being commercial.

4709 ASTRONOMY - VIEWING/SCOPES Arthur Pattaffy

Said a brilliant astronomer, Hubble,
If the Earth were not shaped like a bubble,
But instead were made square,
Then its corners, I swear,
Would cause sailors a whole heap of trouble.

4710 ASTRONOMY - VIEWING/SCOPES   Anna Pest   P0111 P9005

A wonderful tube is the Hubble,
Peering out from its space-platform bubble.
Through billions of years,
The telescope peers,
Turning creationist stuff into rubble!

4711 ASTRONOMY - VIEWING/SCOPES   Bert

A porkbarrel project called Hubble
Was naught but a boondoggle bubble.
It was built out of scrap
And a real piece of crap;
It will never cause nothing but trouble.

4712 ASTRONOMY - VIEWING/SCOPES   Frank Ward   P9401

Its construction was poorly inspected,
Else its problems would have been detected.
But they knew if it flew

No damned way that it could be rejected.

4713 ASTRONOMY - VIEWING/SCOPES   Frank Ward   P9401

NASA knew the whole thing was all wrong
And it would need repairs before long.
They would put on the show
And as for the dough,
They'd be able to sing their own song.

4714 ASTRONOMY - VIEWING/SCOPES   Frank Ward   P9401

NASA knows if they make the repairs
And none of the credit it shares,
It's a good situation.
When we build a space station,
The contract will damned sure be theirs.

4715 ASTRONOMY - VIEWING/SCOPES   Frank Ward   P9401

4717 ASTRONOMY - VIEWING/SCOPES   Jim Weaver Collection

I looked at the sky one clear night;
The heavens were glorious and bright.
As I sat there and gazed
I was greatly amazed
At the glow of the heavenly light

4718 ASTRONOMY - VIEWING/SCOPES   Tom Campbell

There were stars and galaxies galore,
And nebulae and clusters and more!
Though distances astound,
The light does abound
And shines upon all -- rich and poor.

4719 ASTRONOMY - VIEWING/SCOPES   Tom Campbell

I wondered how this would appear
If I were someplace other than here.
And I'd see the display
Of our own Milky Way
Up close, and with everything near.

4720 ASTRONOMY - VIEWING/SCOPES Tom Campbell

Perhaps there's a nebulous cloud;
Its colors so bold and so loud.
Taking up half the sky,
I would probably sigh
And ask, "What is hidden by the shroud?"

4721 ASTRONOMY - VIEWING/SCOPES Tom Campbell

Or maybe I'd be near a cluster
Of a thousand suns with their luster.
The heavens would be bright
And there'd hardly be night;
Sleep would be a hard thing to muster.

4722 ASTRONOMY - VIEWING/SCOPES Tom Campbell

I thought I'd enjoy the sky more
If from somewhere else I could explore;
But I see I was wrong.
I'd not like it for long;
I think Earth is the perfect shore.

4723 ASTRONOMY - VIEWING/SCOPES Tom Campbell

Newton's telescope was a disaster;
He hated his lens-filled refractor.
Upon reflection, he said,
"I'll try this instead.
I'll make one with mirrors; it's faster."

4724 ASTRONOMY - VIEWING/SCOPES Tom Campbell

Astronomy is sometimes a curse,
And you need more and more of a purse.
You get hunger to feed
Bigger aperture need,
So I ask you, "Now what could be worse?"

4725 ASTRONOMY - VIEWING/SCOPES   Tom Campbell

It looked like a glorious night,
But the streetlamps were turned up too bright.

Now the sailor from Munich's a eunuch.

5010 BALLS - LOST - EUNUCH

If the superlative of "placid" is "placidest"
And the superlative of "flaccid" is "flaccidest",
Then a eunuch, serene,
Credentialing the Queen,
Might be the Placidest, Flaccidest Ambassadtrix.

5011 BALLS - LOST - EUNUCH   Theo M. Heller   P9407

I talked to a eunuch online;
He said he was feeling quite fine,
Since his weiner was cut,
And he'd lost both his nuts.
Just the thought caused great pain to mine!

5012 BALLS - LOST - EUNUCH   Wildman   TP9802

Nonuki, the eunuch, is crackers;
Displayed on a shelf are his knackers,
Protected from tarnish
By eight layers of varnish
And colorful Japanese lacquers.

5013 BALLS - LOST - EUNUCH   Peter Wilkins

You know that you are the best poet.
Your balls on a shelf and you show it.
But varnish you're sayin'
Eight layers -- insayun!
Vinegar's better -- you know it.

5014 BALLS - LOST - EUNUCH   Dudesdead

Though knackers attached has he none,
Looking up at the shelf is his fun.
Admiring the luster
Of his fine cluster --
They're blinding when caught by the sun!

5015 BALLS - LOST - EUNUCH Chuck

Life's tough in this old city's ghetto;
Each kid wields his own sharp stiletto.
One erstwhile bum
A eunuch's become;
He speaks in a lovely falsetto!

5016 BALLS - LOST - EUNUCH Mark Levy P9601

Though eunuchs may be quite intestate,
And have no heirs to further life's fate,
They still have the tails
Of infertile males,
And like playful pokes at any rate.

5017 BALLS - LOST - EUNUCH Daniel Ford

They tell of a eunuch from Rhodes,
In whose honor the harem pens odes;
As he's thought to be harmless,
I.e., so to speak, "armless,"
He takes part in some wild episodes.

5018 BALLS - LOST - EUNUCH Armand E Singer 372

The ARGUS received sinecure,
As one who kept sheik's harem pure.
His gonads were price
For positions nice,
That made him a keen, limp voyeur.

5019 BALLS - LOST - EUNUCH Chris Papa

Now eunuchs, as strange as it seems,
Guarding harems -- the stuff of my dreams! --
May have this condition
Giving rise to sedition
'Mongst the girls, who employ 'em in teams

5020 BALLS - LOST - EUNUCH

When caught this enrages the sheik
(Who can only do several a week)
A quick amputation
Saves his reputation,
But the girls other solace must seek

5021 BALLS - LOST - EUNUCH

I've heard that eunuchs are in;
They're not either women or men.
But I love big dicks
And balls I can lick,
So boys without toys seems a sin.

We crept in by the door

Peek at ladies ankles, you should,
Since at other sites, there one could
Find visions, instead,
Where it has been said,
"Looks bad, but feels very good!"

Under starlight one summer in June
On a riverside bank

I lay with my lover Miss June
In the heat of the day around noon.
She couldn't keep her hand
Off my burgeoning gland
And I jizmed and shocked a raccoon.

I crept up behind it at noon;
In my hand was a massive balloon
I puffed and I blew
'Til enormous it grew;
Then I burst it and shocked a raccoon.

Who said, "Lover, I need to pee soon."
She lifted her skirt
And her ultimate spurt
Nearly drowned us and shocked a raccoon.

There once was a girl who had balls,
Which she held in marvelous halls.
She told all the boys
To take out their toys,
To have a ball with their balls at the balls in the halls.

5451 BAWDY - PARTIES Peter Wilkins

A riddle: Would you know, perchance,
Why rodents in Marseilles (In France)
And all of their thralls
Have minuscule balls?
So few of them know how to dance.

5452 BAWDY - PARTIES John Miller

The girl who had balls was divine,
Whether upright or lying supine.
But it wasn't her formal
That made her hormonal --
The balls she was holding were mine!

5453 BAWDY - PARTIES John Miller

In order to end this charade,
Some 'get-to-know-you' plans I've made;
We'll meet face-to-face
In some unknown place;
The dress code will be 'masquerade'.

5454 BAWDY - PARTIES

A grand party, a real whoppty do,
With lots of great food and good brew,
To end the old year
On a note of cheer.
The place was filled with a good crew.

Surveying the buffet with glee.

That's everything's covered in sand.

5457 BAWDY - PARTIES Arthur Pattaffy

A young city yuppy named Saul, (redundant - McW)
Thought life meant him "having a ball".
Partying until dawn,
He woke up in the morn,
Remembering nothing at all.

5458 BAWDY - PARTIES Arthur Pattaffy

I wondered what was all that noise;
Just thought it was boys with their toys.
But when I looked out
To see what was about,
There stood Travis in perfect poise.

5459 BAWDY - PARTIES

I had time to whip out my Canon,
And snap a cute picture of Shannon
Caught deep in the act,
About to retract,
And then I got smell of some salmon.

5460 BAWDY - PARTIES

Smells like fish, tastes like chicken, they say.
How I wish I was lickin' today,
Some hot cunt on a platter;
That I want, in some batter.
This dish will sure quicken my lay.

5461 BAWDY - PARTIES

I ain't no cowboy, now its true;
They call me Little Billy Boy Blue.
Bo Peep lost her sheep;
Was in tears knee deep,
When I told her I spotted a few.

5462 BAWDY - PARTIES

Now over the fence they were jumpin'
Towards Travis's Annual Sheep Humpin'.
I tried pullin him loose
But then spotted a goose,
So I left him, and then started pumpin'.

Miss Gray was a stuffy old maid,
Who drank too much punch, I'm afraid.
She jumped on the table,
Yelled "Where's the man able
To show me, it's fun to get laid?"

5465 BAWDY - PARTIES John Miller

Now Randolf, the office's monk,
When drunk thought he was quite the hunk.
He grabbed old Miss Gray
And proceeded to lay
By opening her with his trunk.

5466 BAWDY - PARTIES Arden

And then old Peter Lanier,
The limp-wristed old office queer,
Paid Randolph in kind
Then he snuck up behind
And buggered him in the rear.

5467 BAWDY - PARTIES MrMalo

Miss Gray saw him and fell over;
The chance was not missed by old Grover.
He took her supine,
You can guess his last line:
"Life's not over till you are clover!"

5468 BAWDY - PARTIES Annie Jay

And poor Joe, another office flunky,
Also got just a little too drunky.
But was too shy to jump in
While they were all pumpin',
He just watched while spankin' his monkey.

5469 BAWDY - PARTIES Kaylin

The Big Boss attended the party,
Got buzzed and felt himself hearty.
"If I don't get laid,

Or else my name isn't McCarty.

5470 BAWDY - PARTIES Frank Fazed

They wondered just who'd save the day.
We know know 'twas stuffy Miss Gray,
Who saw this as ther chance,
Gave him a lap dance,
While the rest of us cheered with "Hooray!"

5471 BAWDY - PARTIES Frank Fazed

The Boss, by now quite bleary-eyed,
Asked Miss Gray, "Just where do you hide?
You sweet looking thing.
C'mon, have a fling."
She boffed him; the old bastard died.

5472 BAWDY - PARTIES Frank Fazed

Miss Gray wasn't feeling much pain,
As they continued with their daisy-chain.
She had one more drink,
And slipped over the brink,
Yelling, "Come on, let's do it again!"

5473 BAWDY - PARTIES Malecar

The accountant, one Mr. Kincaid,
Was the only one not getting laid.
He grumbled, "What jerks!
When they next come to work,
If they think anyone's getting paid!"

5474 BAWDY - PARTIES Arden

Now the revelers have all arose,
Untangled from head to their toes,
And nothing's so sweet
As a Miss Gray in heat;
A virgin no more, heaven knows.

5475 BAWDY - PARTIES Arden

'Twas destined, this bash, to bequeath
Joys uncommonly linked with a wreath.
Now Anna and Nellie
Have more in their belly,

'Twould have save Ann and Nellie some grief.
Instead they have found
Their bellies so round
And troubles beyond all belief!

She has bosoms from here () out to here ().
They're so firm and unyielding,
She'll knock down the building

5479 BAWDY - PARTIES

Remember? She squeezed through the door,
Knocking plaster and bricks to the floor;
Swung her tits at the wall
Between kitchen and hall,
And the whole fucking place was no more.

And we really got going, no bull!
In a closet we might

Wanna screw with Big Lou, way out West;
That there wild thing loves shaggin' the best;

Folks all know, quite a few miles aroun',
No two hombres could hold Big Lou down;
'Til one day, Piss Pot Pete,
Showed his ass on Main Street;
'Twas for wild cunt he'd ridden to town.

Other patrons, aghast, made strange sounds;
Man, his tool must have weighed sixteen pounds!
There he stood, big and mean,
Drenched with sweat, not too clean;
Yelled: "Old Lou, come let's do it like hounds!"

5497 BAWDY - SONGS Allen Wolverton

Then she came down the stairs, saw this lout:
Muscle, gristle and monster-sized spout;
Way down, deep in her snatch,
Knew she'd sure met her match,
But 'twas too late to be backing out!

Tell you what: the town square,
Has 'nuff room, I declare;
Let's see just how much you can endure!"

5499 BAWDY - SONGS Allen Wolverton

There were gawkers to watch this coition;
Placing bets: who'd fall first in submission?
Tykes and women went home;
Vendors poured beer with foam;
And the Mayor was charging admission.

5500 BAWDY - SONGS Allen Wolverton

Big Lou's thighs and her groin barely hid
A wet box that sure looked like a squid!
Piss Pot Pete jammed it in,
Sixteen pounds, in her quim,
As he pushed Big Lou down with the lid.

5501 BAWDY - SONGS Allen Wolverton

How they tangled and thrashed, like for hours!
Tore up trees, many shrubs, all the flowers.
Big Lou grunted and groaned,
Being thoroughly boned,
While the crowd was impressed by their powers.

5502 BAWDY - SONGS Allen Wolverton

Piss Pot Pete was no nancy-boy slouch,
He at last made Big Lou yodel "Ouch!"
For his tool of destruction
Broke down her twat's suction;
She knew he had mastered her pouch.

5503 BAWDY - SONGS Allen Wolverton

Big Lou's eyes rolled up, showed just white;
As she sighed and passed out with delight;
Piss Pot Pete had, by crackee,
Been chawin' terbaccy;
He drooled while he spooged; what a sight!

5504 BAWDY - SONGS Allen Wolverton

As he rose up, the crowd was struck dumb;
They had thought, for the day, he had come.
But he once again stroked it;
Then said as he choked it:
"I sure hate these grass-stains, by gum!"

5505 BAWDY - SONGS Allen Wolverton

There once was an indian maid,
Who declared she was not afraid,
To lie on her back
In a tar paper shack,
For the purpose of just getting laid.

5506 BAWDY - SONGS Anon

A fair made lived in San Berdoo;
Sweet sixteen, and quit pretty too;
Now one day, as I'll tell,
She got restless as hell,
With an itch in her ringadangdoo.

5507 BAWDY - SONGS Allen Wolverton

Well ringadangdoo, what is that?
Glad you asked, boys; just think of a cat;
Soft and furry? You bet!
And our maid loved to pet!
With a split built for catchin' the bat!

5508 BAWDY - SONGS Allen Wolverton

Now she took me, one day, to her cellar;
She declared that I'm one damn fine feller;
Fed me wine, whiskey too;
Showed her ringadangdoo;
Said, "Come on, it's no time to be yeller."

5509 BAWDY - SONGS Allen Wolverton

It was almost to good to be true;
It was heaven, but when we were through,
We heard screams all about,
When her mama found out,
That I'd ravaged her ringadangdoo.

Said her Mama, "You're now in the stew;
'Cause your maidenhead's shot through and through;
You've been ruined, it's true;
Just one thing left to do:
You must market your ringadangdoo."

So she hung a sign up on her door:
"Come on in; I am one fine whore."
Young men came, old ones too.
Boys, her place was a zoo;
On her ringadangdoo they did score.

Never fussy about who she'd screw,
She did deal with a scrofulus crew;
While with pleasure she sang,
This unsavory gang
Left a ring 'round her ringadangdoo.

Then one night came a real sumbitch;
Had the clap and the seven year itch,
Plus the syph and strange ticks,
All combined; the whole mix
Made her ringadang do black as pitch.

Well, she's gone, lads, our maid is no more;
We still praise San Berdoo's finest whore;
City Hall's where each tit
On the wall, now does sit.
Plus her ringadangdoo's on the door!

5515 BAWDY - SONGS Allen Wolverton

The Cap'n of the old Missin-Tail
Was heard to lament and wail:
His first mate had a choker,
And no woman to poke her;
He'd got caught bending over the rail.

5516 BAWDY - SONGS

He stopped his uninvited guest
From completing his perverted quest,
By drawing his knife,
And threatning his life;
Then said, "Let's have a little contest."

5517 BAWDY - SONGS

"Mate, ye've been out to sea way too long.
Since ye've tried to poke me with yer dong,
Turn the ship to the west.
We'll have a liars contest,
If ye win, I'll let ye keep yer prong."

5518 BAWDY - SONGS

"Oh Cap'n, mine is big as the air,
Ships sail in and out, never tickle a hair.
If you can top that,
Then I'll eat me hat,
So give it your best shot, if you dare."

5519 BAWDY - SONGS

So, the last old spinster said: "See,
Lookee here! Mine's as big as the sea;
Any ship can drop anchor,
A liner or tanker;
I'll tell you they can't bother me!"

5520 BAWDY - SONGS

Then the second old maid did declare;
"And so what? Mine's as big as the air;
The whole air force can roar
In, and not touch a sore;
And they ne'er even ruffle a hair!"

5521 BAWDY - SONGS

There was a strange song, writ of old,
That lists what one tart cunt can hold.
There's battleships, dukws,
Tanks, field guns and trucks,
And Wellington bombers, we're told.

5522 BAWDY - SONGS Tiddy Ogg

Oh no! Oh disaster! Oh woe!
I've been ordered this Sunday to go
(In a tone unforgiving)
To work for a living,
Away from the city I know.

5523 BAWDY - TRAVELS

Up North where the rain always falls,
And the chill causes gentlemens' balls
To drop off in the gutters
And shrivel their putters,
While battling the hurricane squalls.

5524 BAWDY - TRAVELS

Not one day, nor three days, but five;
And today is the day I arrive,
So I'll sprinkle my willy
And jockstrap with chilli;
The heat might keep percy alive.

5525 BAWDY - TRAVELS

On second thought (tears in my eyes)
I've decided that's not very wise.
So I'll bring a small heater
To wrap round my peter,
And warm up my bollocks and thighs.

5526 BAWDY - TRAVELS

Just tried it; the heat is intense,
And the bulge in my jock is immense;
But however excitin'
I'd not want to frighten
Old ladies and cause an offence.

5527 BAWDY - TRAVELS

But maybe some furry-lined panties;
So girls, if you've got some nice scanties
Which thus are so lined,
I'd be grateful (but mind
You don't send me those bloomers of aunties).

5528 BAWDY - TRAVELS

Ah dammit! You can't e-mail pants,
So it seems that I've now lost my chance.
Should have asked you last Sunday
To mail them on Monday,
To heat up my tackle and lance.

5529 BAWDY - TRAVELS

So maybe to keep myself warm,
I'll wear three or four of my form-
Fitting jocks and keep Percy
Alive from the merci-
Less sleet and the hurricane storm.

5530 BAWDY - TRAVELS

0 think my hotel is a doss-
house; it's all that my stingy old boss
Will allow me to stay
In while working away
'Cause he couldn't give a fig or a toss.

5531 BAWDY - TRAVELS

I doubt there'll be even a maid
I can talk to and gently persuade
Into having some fun
In the room with my gun;
So already I'm feeling dismayed.

5532 BAWDY - TRAVELS

I walked to the old boat yard quay,
Intent, gazing over the sea
And stood in this style
For just a short while,
Then a young charmer stepped up to me.

5533 BAWDY - TRAVELS

Her hair, in the sunlight was gleaming;
As down to her shoulders 'twas streaming.
Said she: "Please tell me
What you see in the sea."
I said: "Nothing dear, I was dreaming."

5534 BAWDY - TRAVELS

"Of what," said this lass, with a beam-
ing smile, "Is this thing that you dream?"
I said: "If you've time,
For a quick gin and lime,
I'll outline the wonderful scheme."

5535 BAWDY - TRAVELS

I bought her a lager and lime,
And told her, alas, not in rhyme,
A dream I had had,
Though she think me mad,
Of a happening in near future time.

5536 BAWDY - TRAVELS

I told her I'd stood on that quay,
And dreamed that a girl spoke to me,
And asked me my dreams,
And they were, so it seems,
That I'd buy her a large G and T.

5537 BAWDY - TRAVELS

We'd come to this same seaside bar;
I'd tell her my dreams, of a star-
Kissed girl who would ask
My thoughts, and the task
I'd start. "Now hold on, that's quite far...

5538 BAWDY - TRAVELS

"...Enough," quoth the maid, "This could go
Forever." I said: "Oh dear, no.
For one of these girls,
With her fine golden curls,
And the loveliest smile, halts me, so..."

5539 BAWDY - TRAVELS

I tell her of neap and spring tide,
And my old granddad's travels, with pride;
And a tale told by he,
Referring to me,
And she sat quite in thrall, sparkling eyed.

5540 BAWDY - TRAVELS

(Oh Lord, this is just the preamble,
It's going to be quite a long ramble.
I think in the time
You finish this rhyme,
You could row from Seattle to Hamble.)

5541 BAWDY - TRAVELS

My granddaddy, ship's cabin boy,
Was out in that port called Hanoi,
Or perhaps Singapore,
A-strolling ashore,
When an old Chinese crone cried "Ahoy!"

5542 BAWDY - TRAVELS

In a voice that was cracked as a bell,
She started her subtle soft sell,
And here's what she's offerin':
For only a sovereign
She said that the future she'd tell.

5543 BAWDY - TRAVELS

At a time and a date palindromic,
With fears of a slump economic,
That the son of his heir,
To a bar would repair,
With a golden girl, drink gin and tonic.

5544 BAWDY - TRAVELS

He gave her a glance wholly quizzical,
He'd no time for things metaphysical.
But her eyes held such power
As she spoke: "At that hour
The whole world will turn paradisical."

5545 BAWDY - TRAVELS

I reckon we're maybe half way.
I'm glad you've been able to stay.
Return then to now 'n'
The sun has gone down,
And my honey blonde lady will say...

5546 BAWDY - TRAVELS

She laughed in a tinkling chime,
"That's the worst spiel I've heard in my time,
And even if true,
'Bout me and 'bout you,
This drink, lad, is lager and lime."

5547 BAWDY - TRAVELS

Whereon I soon made intercession,
Said "We're on the edge of recession,
And as for that gnomic
Third clause, palindromic,
We've time left a-plenty this session.

5548 BAWDY - TRAVELS

"The year is two thousand and two,
And that's palindromically true.
The date, my dear Deb
Is twentieth Feb,
And that is a palindrome too.

5549 BAWDY - TRAVELS

"Round a quarter to eight I'll buy you,
A large G and T, and me, too.
And make sure we're sipping,
Or otherwise tipping
It throatwards at 20:02"

5550 BAWDY - TRAVELS

We each then looked up from our glass.
Our eyes met. You may think it crass,
But from that moment there,
We were walking on air,
As now, and for many years past.

5551 BAWDY - TRAVELS

I looked up, but no magic wand
Had waved; had my granddad been conned?
Her sweet smile had gone;
She looked rather wan:
"Alas, I'm no natural blonde."

5552 BAWDY - TRAVELS

I looked round, but all was the same.
I said "Bye, I'll see you again.
How 'bout here, next week?"
She shrugged, didn't speak,
And I trudged off home in the rain.

5553 BAWDY - TRAVELS

I called to see granny next day.
I told of my tryst by the bay.
"So, gran, was it true,
What granddad told you?"
And here's what my granny did say...

5554 BAWDY - TRAVELS

"A sailor's a girl in each port,
He thinks he's entitled to court;

But boy, that I ain't,
And I had myself, too, some sport.

5555 BAWDY - TRAVELS

So when he came home from his trawling,
And found me, with baby a-crawling,
He hadn't a clue
What the milkman would do,
When here for his money he's calling."

5556 BAWDY - TRAVELS

Remember those days long ago
When you looked in a dictionary o-
Nly to find whether "fuck"
"Penis", "clitty" or "suck"
Were included? You just had to know.

You're getting close but it's not SPINE."
(what is mightier than the sword? - McW)

I bet my good friend named Ringo,
That "Fuck" was in his grannies lingo.
So we dressed in disguise
And before Ringo's eyes,
Granny said "Fuck!" when I said "Bingo!"

It's apparent you knew,
That his granny now suffers Tourettes!

5564 BAWDY - WORDS Keith MacMillan 60b

Are truly the best,
In the game of big chest,
They're a handy bookstand when you're reading!

6350 BOOBS - FEEDING

There was a young lady named Bragg,
Who nursed with her breasts that did sag.
She left baby alone
And she ran to the phone,
And thus left him holding the bag.

6351 BOOBS - FEEDING Albin Chaplin

There was a young girl who begat,
Three babies named Nat, Tat, and Pat.
It was fun in the breeding,
But hell in the feeding;
She found there was no teat for Tat.

6352 BOOBS - FEEDING L0913

The mammary glands at their best
Do more than adorn a girl's chest:
They nourish the children
And (somewhat bewilderin')
Help keep the kids' dad in the nest.

6353 BOOBS - FEEDING Norm Storer

I can't, I no longer give milk,
I'm no longer one of that ilk.
I nursed babies three
And between you and me,
That tit cream I used was like silk.

6354 BOOBS - FEEDING

I remember when I was still nursin',
I spent most of my days sadly cursin'.
For when I bent down low,
From both nipples did flow
Sticky mother's milk, I was dispersin'.

6355 BOOBS - FEEDING

My husband enjoyed it, though, see,
The way my milk flowed out so free.
He nibbled and suckled
Each time that we coupled,
And sometimes used it in his coffee.

6356 BOOBS - FEEDING

Breast-fed babies are hearty and hale.
But this process is strange to the male.
What tells babies to tipple --
Those bumps 'round the nipple
Reading, "Suck her when thirsty", in Braille?

6357 BOOBS - FEEDING H Myers TP9804

A certain young pervert named Whit
Said, "Nothing's like milk from a tit;
It tastes kind of spoiled,
As if it's been boiled,
But think of the source and the fit."

6358 BOOBS - FEEDING Armand E Singer 668

There was a young lady of Spuzzum,
Who harbored two snakes in her bosom.
She explained, "It's my fate
That I overlactate --
So I just drop them in and they does 'em.

6359 BOOBS - FEEDING Keith MacMillan 104c

A wet-nurse of Portage la Prairie
Has a bosom both massive and hairy.
Nonetheless, since eighteen,
She's provided a clean
And productive and portable dairy.

6360 BOOBS - FEEDING Keith MacMillan 80c

From mothers we fixated so,
Though they merely fed us to grow.
We just can't give up,
Both in and out cup;
Breasts provide us pleasure, you know.

6361 BOOBS - FEEDING Chris Papa

I once knew a girl who had zilch;
She lived on the stuff she could filch;
Then pregnant she got,
Her tits grew a lot,
So she bottled and sold all her milch.

6362 BOOBS - FEEDING

Since the mother of stubborn twin sons,
Finds the prospect of weaning them stuns,
It remains to be seen
If the two boys will wean,
Or continue to stick to their guns.

6363 BOOBS - FEEDING Jerry Nordal P0310

Are those bountiful mammaries real?
They provide ten sextuplets a meal.
Just one nipple's a sin
And a gross waste of skin--
Udder waste--all the dairymen feel.

6364 BOOBS - FEEDING Poet Lariat T9707

There was a young man of Racine,
Who was weaned at the age of sixteen.
He said, "I'll admit
There's no milk in the teat,
But think of the fun it has been!"

6365 BOOBS - FEEDING L1520

I think one day I'd like to go,
To mountain tops covered with snow.
To solve this omission,
A substitute vision:
Whipped cream on the nipples of Flo.

6366 BOOBS - FEEDING Tiddy Ogg

The teenager Britney Spears,
Has been augmented, so it appears.
She grew quite a lot,
And all in one shot,
And all in one spot -- her brassiere!

6367 BOOBS - IMPROVED Tom Myers

This beautiful harlot from Lubies,
Won fame for possessing two rubies.
It's not big red stones
That makes her so known,
It's the nipples on mountainous boobies!

6368 BOOBS - IMPROVED Laurence Craft

They say, "More than a mouthful's a waste";
"Need's only be big enough to taste";
Well for this I'm in luck
For I've not much suck,
But the cream is as thick as toothpaste

6369 BOOBS - IMPROVED

The daughter of Ms. Zazu Pitts
Was blessed with the largest of tits.
She'd inflate them nightly
Each time larger slightly.
Now her parts are bigger than bits.

6370 BOOBS - IMPROVED Tom Patton P0112

Our topless bartender, Miss West,
Serves mixed drinks direct from the breast:
The right tit yields cherry,
The left one strawberry,
And there's Moxie, by special request.

6371 BOOBS - IMPROVED G0485

It appears with the right medication
Plus massage, exercise, dedication,
I'll provide quite a shock,
When men glimpse down my frock,
For my breasts will succumb to inflation.

6372 BOOBS - IMPROVED

A beautiful girl is Ms. Kitz
And everyone loves her nice tits.
They're beauties, it's true,
Expensive ones, too...
She bought them at Charles of the Ritz.

6373 BOOBS - IMPROVED Michael Polo P8604

There was a young lady from Crewe;

But you might have guessed,
That the girl I liked best
Was Terry, a buxom bra-burner.

A woman viewed with dejection
Her grocer's chicken selection.
She thought them too skimpy,
Tiny and wimpy,
And requested some sized to perfection.

6376 BOOBS - IMPROVED Res Ipsa

The grocer said he'd prepare more,
While she shopped for her foodstuffs galore.
On the P.A. to his guests,
"The woman wanting bigger breasts,
Come and meet me in back of the store."

Poor flat Lynnie the lottery won,
So she pumped up her tits just for fun.
And now, two weeks post-op,
She's enormous up top;
And at long last, her cups over-run.

A gal with Dow-Corning implants
Said, "They sure enhance customers' pants,
But I needed a pair
For the pair I had there
Were concave and stayed still when I'd dance.

6379 BOOBS - IMPROVED Arthur Deex P9801

'Tis a far better thing, and they're pretties,
Dow ad copy said, sent to cities,
You buy one, you get two,
As a woman, you're new.
Just this month we've a sale of two titties.

6380 BOOBS - IMPROVED

Weekends are the times that I pop
Quite frequently into the shop
That's closest to me,
For a peek at Marie
In her skimpy and eye-popping top.

6381 BOOBS - IMPROVED Peter Wilkins

It's not that I'm aiming to see
Much more of the lovely Marie;
It is just the defiance
Of physical science
That's hugely intriguing to me.

6382 BOOBS - IMPROVED Peter Wilkins

Defiance of science? Why yes;
I'm trying to figure the stress
That's caused by her bust
And her nipples when thrust
Into such a diminutive dress.

6383 BOOBS - IMPROVED Peter Wilkins

Great engineers figured the stresses
Involved in the making of dresses,
To give such enclosure.
But hands-on exposure
Resulted in much sticky messes.

6384 BOOBS - IMPROVED Tiddy Ogg

The woman gave her doc a request
To enlarge the size of her breast.
With the increase in size,
She could capitalize
And have fun in a life with more zest.

Whose boobs were fleshed out with foam paddin';
This mild subterfuge,
Which made them look huge,
Caused hearts in her fan clubs to gladden.

6386 BOOBS - IMPROVED Armand E Singer 831

That figures do not ever lie,
But if a girl' bust
Does not inspire lust,
Mr. Fredericks can sure amplify.

For they claim I'm too skinny, ma --
Though I've pumped both my boobs full of wax."

6388 BOOBS - IMPROVED Armand E Singer 733

6391 BOOBS - IMPROVED Mark Levy P9511

Are those bountiful mammaries real?
He asked with unusual zeal.
His dick started to rise
But then got the surprise;
When he felt them, they're harder than steel!

6392 BOOBS - IMPROVED Doug from Upland T9707

Big tits and small tits I've sucked;
And all sizes of nipples I've plucked.
Can't say size is a measure
To give maximum pleasure;
It's the way how the bearer had fucked.

6393 BOOBS - IMPROVED

She kept her boobs stored in the fridge,
Which frequently gave her a twidge
Of code in her dose,
And chills head to toes,
When she wore them out to play bridge.

Beware of the man-eating mams --
You're taking your life in your hands.
That echoing cleave-
Age still grip and then heave,
And pull you clean out of your jams.

6398 BOOBS - IMPROVED Lucy

You'll end up a tragical stat --
Missing, thought dead, and that's that.
Your pic on milk carton
Just 'cause of a hard-on;
Up-chewed, you poor thing, and out-spat.

It's all covered, man,
With my medical plan,
And I've grown tits to play with at will.

A tupperware bra on her chest.
It didn't fit great
Or lift and separate,
But it kept what she had, nice and fresh.

I had a big bust in me mooth;
'Twas Jayne's, from Scotland's deep sooth.
The tastiest bit --
She'd coated the nip
With chocolate for me sweet tooth.

6402 BOOBS - IMPROVED Tutta Gioia

The left one was chocky for you,
Clotted cream on the right for me too.
From Cornwall to Devon,
I'd be in heaven,
With a pink perky bit poking through.

6403 BOOBS - IMPROVED Tutta Gioia

At my favorite pub in the town,
The barmaids all wore see-through gowns.
As grew daily tips,
So, too, did their nips;
They had them enlarged by Doc Brown.

A small frozen river Claire crossed,
Unaware of the wiles of Jack Frost.
Until through her blouser,
He quietly aroused her,
As her nipples he'd gently accost.

6405 BOOBS - IMPROVED Archie

But I thought that Claire had been knittin'
A pair of nip mittens quite fittin',
For crossing iced rivers.
But by her nip's shivers,
It looks like old Jack Frost has bitten.

With an absence of shame,
As the nipples emerged by the freezer.

John, accepting a girl's invitation,
Placed his genital spear

Now stuck in the fair damsel's cleavage.

But now they stand up proud and tall."

6413 BOOBS - IMPROVED Clarence Boyle P8906

A flat-busted young damsel named Kitty
Troweled bust creme all over each titty.

There's an Atlanta girl named Lola;
Has a red, white, and blue aureole.
The unusual hue
Is probably due
To breasts that dispense Coca Cola.

6415 BOOBS - IMPROVED Tom Patton P9507

Her breasts people called itty-bitties.
She saw doctors in two or three cities.
One surgeon was nice
Gave her boobs at half price;
'Twas a kindhearted sale of two titties.

Size 32A, that is all.
Do you have a cure?"
"Oh yes, miss, one sure
To work, just stay there and I'll call."

6418 BOOBS - IMPROVED Tiddy Ogg

"Good morning, Miss Jones, I'm the doc.
Please take off your blouse and your frock.
And I'll drop my pants.
Your fingers please dance
On this thing here, they call it a cock."

6419 BOOBS - IMPROVED Tiddy Ogg

"Now pump it and point at your breast.
Oooh eeee..., magic fluid expressed.
Now massage it in
To your mammary skin,
And surely, you'll soon be impressed."

6420 BOOBS - IMPROVED Tiddy Ogg

"I'll be back again, miss, tomorrow, see,
And each day thereafter, 'cause morally,
Hippocrates bleated,
This must be repeated,
And even perhaps given orally."

6421 BOOBS - IMPROVED Tiddy Ogg

"I'm back again, doc, for inspecting;
Some changes I'm sure I'm detecting.
My boyfriends I told
Of your method so bold.
And they did the same by injecting."

6422 BOOBS - IMPROVED Tiddy Ogg

"To some funny place down below.
My breasts, yes, they've started to grow,
But so has my belly.
Why's that, doctor?" "Well see,
These side-effects quite often show."

6423 BOOBS - IMPROVED Tiddy Ogg

"I think, miss, you'd better not tarry,
But take your best beau to Rev Harry.
Tell him you cannot wait,
And to fix you a date,
For you and your boyfriend to marry."

The tits of Elizabeth Jean
Are the shiniest anyone's seen;
For she buffs 'em away,
Using polish each day,

6426 BOOBS - IMPROVED Cap'n Bean P2006

At the Titwatchers' Annual Convention
Hilda got only honorable mention...
For a low bastard phoned
That she'd been siliconed,
Which accounted for her vast distension.

6427 BOOBS - IMPROVED Grand Prix Lim 283

Jane had a talent quite singular;
She had a seventeen-jointed fingular.
She'd insert it by bits,
Thereby making tits
Go around and around quite whizzingular.

6428 BOOBS - IMPROVED Jim Weaver Collection

Breasts are a lovely invention;
They're best when the skin's under tension.
On occasion it's not;
Those cases are what
Keep surgeons from going on pension.

6429 BOOBS - IMPROVED Macsam

There was a young lady named Dahlia,
Whose bust was, in truth, utter failure.
She was surgically blessed,
With a chest like Mae West,
And died happy of hypermammalia.

Victoria's boobs immature
Negated a likely amour.
But a surgeon at Bra (ITAL)
Built her up like her ma,
And made her supremely cocksure.

6431 BOOBS - IMPROVED Allan Ottley P8805

There was a woman named Cindy,
Whose breasts were as small as can be.
To the doctor she went,
With attitude hell-bent,
To go from an "A" to a "D".

The surgury's done, now it's time for some fun,
Even though they are still kind of smartin'.
The saline's in place;
With a smile on her face,
They resemble those of Dolly Parton.

6433 BOOBS - IMPROVED Dave Jarbo

We try to be kind, but bear this in mind,
As we say now in verses and rhymes...
Everytime you bend over,
To pick up that clover,
That gravity sure sucks sometimes.

6434 BOOBS - IMPROVED Dave Jarbo

With Summer acoming, I wouldn't try running
On days that are sunny and hot.
When your boyfriend comes pouncing,
And they are still bouncing,
They still will be comfortable...NOT!

6435 BOOBS - IMPROVED Dave Jarbo

This may be a quirk, but if this doesn't work,
You can still take your doctor to court.
You can say that he lied,
And your living bra died,
And your suing for lack of support!

6436 BOOBS - IMPROVED Dave Jarbo

A saggy old matron named Dot
Felt her nipples getting quite hot...
But her tits were adroop
In the clam chowder spoup,
So she tied them both up in a knot.

6437 BOOBS - IMPROVED TuttaGioia

I know a young woman named Julie,
Who comlained of her figure unduly.
"I'm an outgoing lass,
With a flat little ass,
But my front end's a bit more unruly."

6438 BOOBS - IMPROVED Jim Weaver Collection

And my pecs...should I duct tape them too?
For my chest once so manly (it's true!)
Has begun to grow A-
Cup size boobies since May;
Though I doubt I'll get bosoms like you.

6440 BOOBS - IMPROVED Joe McEwen P9504

A well-endowed barmaid from Bude
Had tits that were aptly tattooed.
"Whiskey" one read;
"Ale" 'tother said;
Both topped with pert nips that unscrewed.

6441 BOOBS - IMPROVED

There once was a girl whose left nip
Could wiggle, squirt, meow and yip.
And after I drank,
It curved like a crank,
Directing me toward the left hip.

A wine connoisseur, Spinster Hupple,
Said, "Wine on my boobs keep them supple,
When rubbed with amounts
Of cream from the founts
Of suitors, not less than a couple."

6443 BOOBS - IMPROVED Travis Brasell

So, promise me you'll give a giggle,
Those 38C's I will jiggle.
They do make me swell.
I love it as well
When those sexy hips you do wiggle..

6444 BOOBS - JIGGLE Archie

I'd just like to say, if you please!
That I do not have 44D's!
Although they still jiggle,
I'll give them a wiggle,
'Cause I've only got 38C's.

6445 BOOBS - JIGGLE Jayne

Us titwatchers throw lustful fits
When we see a babe's big bouncing tits.
Tits are standard equipment,
But some get a shipment
That beats common tits all to bits!

6446 BOOBS - JIGGLE Grand Prix Lim 161

A letter I posted in c/o
The College, told Katie her p/o
Boobs boast the best oz
Of jiggles and boz,
Of ladies I've lain in the l/o.

Said a young tennis player named Whipp,
Adjusting his unruly zip,
"It wasn't her face
That I fell for, in Grace,
But the bubbies that bounced in her slip."

6448 BOOBS - JIGGLE G0488

A girl at the club where friend Stan goes,
Has tits like a couple of mangoes.
He watches her dance,
And near creams his pants,
'Cause, boy!, do they bounce when she tangoes.

6449 BOOBS - JIGGLE

Whenever she tangoes it seems
Poor Stan's jeans are strained at the seams.
Her boobs have him droolin'
And rubbin' his tool, an'
All night long, he's having wet dreams.

6450 BOOBS - JIGGLE

There once was a girl from Old Witz,
Who had the most marvelous teats.
She said with a smile,
As she bounced them awhile,
"I can't find a bra that they fits!"

6451 BOOBS - JIGGLE The Beard

There once was a girl from Old Witz,
Who had the most marvelous teats.
But she said with a frown,
As she jumped up and down,
"When I stop, they just won't call it quits."

6452 BOOBS - JIGGLE The Beard

There once was a girl from Old Witz,
Who had the most marvelous teats.
She needed a bra,
Or else they'd see-saw,
So this young girl used two baseball mitts.

It ain't just that young Isabella's
Big knockers attract all the fellas,
It's how they gyrate
And her tassels rotate
Like counter-rotating propellas.

6454 BOOBS - JIGGLE Peter Wilkins

There was a young lady of Spitz
Who wobbled her "thirty-eight" tits,
Whilst her boyfriend, a Pole,
Got that up her hole,
Till she was fucked, squirming, for "six."
(He must have made a touchdown - McW)

6455 BOOBS - JIGGLE G2734

There once was this babe with a bosom,
The wiggliest, jiggliest, two some,
That ever I gawked,
And when near me she walked,
I have to admit that I grew some.

6456 BOOBS - JIGGLE Hugh Clary

The blonde, while at teatime with Chaucer,
Annoyingly sipped from her saucer;
"You never use cups?"
He asked. "Hell no, Pups!"
She bellowed, "My tits hate a bra, Sir!"

6457 BOOBS - JIGGLE Travis Brasell

My tits like to be loose and free;
No bra binding them up for me.
Still firm and plumpcious,
Deliciously scrumptious,
Now how 'bout some milk for that tea?

6458 BOOBS - JIGGLE Carol

The thought of your tits loose and free,
Gives a warm fuzzy feeling to me.
I can't help but thinking,
If it's tea that we're drinking,
I'd much rather have your honey!

6459 BOOBS - JIGGLE Ned

A buxom young woman named Thai
Has breasts that appear they could fly;
They've a natural lift,
With a rebound that's swift,

6460 BOOBS - JIGGLE Cap'n Bean

I once knew a woman named Jane,
Who some had described as quite plain.
So she cast off her bra,
And the jiggle I saw
Would have driven an old man insane.

6461 BOOBS - JIGGLE Bob Birch P0207

That wild pair of thirty eight C's
Are swinging around in the breeze,
And knocking out eyes
Of all of the guys,
And bringing them down to their knees.

6462 BOOBS - JIGGLE

On their knees, they spy her great rose,
Which they penetrate with their nose.
With their snorting and sneezing,
The scent is so pleasing
Down below, their great columns grows!

6463 BOOBS - JIGGLE

It's odd, the reaction that hits 'em,
When fellows see dollies so titsome.
Such motions of bust
Stir oceans of lust,
For yen in most men never quits 'em.

6464 BOOBS - JIGGLE Grand Prix Lim 679

A buxom young miss, quite refined,
Asked her friends to keep one thought in mind:
"I do not get fussed
When you ogle my bust,
But please, just ignore my behind!"

6465 BOOBS - JIGGLE Norman Storer P0311

Big redheads run mostly to tits,
Which drives some men out of their wits.
A big, wobbly bust
Stirs men's animal lust,
And she fuck 'em until they have fits!

6466 BOOBS - JIGGLE G0467

It ain't just that young Isabella's
Big knockers attract all the fellas,
It's how, when gyratin',
Her tassels rotate in
A manner like turbo-propellas.

6467 BOOBS - JIGGLE

The spinning tassles on her nipple
Compare not to the fluid ripple,
of her gyrating ass!
"Stand up, clap", "No I pass;
Can't stand now and I'm not a cripple!"

6468 BOOBS - JIGGLE

Isabella's not queen of this castle,
She should do it like me, it's no hassle.
One clockwise, one counter,
Then the fella's would mount her;
And fun? Lord, she'd have her a passel!

6469 BOOBS - JIGGLE

I'm squinting cross-eyed at your nips,
Twirling tassels like miniature whips,
And would guess from the speed
Of rotation, you'd need
To attach 'em with crocodile clips.

6470 BOOBS - JIGGLE

The wonderful Wizard of Oz, (ounce)
Is really a lady who boz, (bounce)
With tits not impounded
In bra, till surrounded
By crowds, then a vice squad cop poz. (pounce)

6471 BOOBS - JIGGLE

The best thing I saw at the spa
Was a beauty removing her bra.
Her titties sprang out
And danced all about,
And my organ went do me sol La!

6472 BOOBS - JIGGLE Laurence Perrine P9410

The trampoline's fine for us guys,
But ladies I have to advise,
If you've got a bust,
Of fair size, you'll just
End up with two lovely black eyes.

6473 BOOBS - JIGGLE Tiddy Ogg

A buxom young dancer called Cleo
Did Cabaret, way down in Rio;
Each night when she rhumba'd,
Her breasts, unencumbered

6554 BOOBS - LARGE - LARGER   Peter W

I'll sent her a present or two
With a note reading "love only you."
And a pic of my dick

Which is hard to believe, but it's true.)"

6555 BOOBS - LARGE - LARGER Peter W

I met him again Monday night,
And said "Fritz, my old friend, you all right?"

'Of course,' she replied and I dived
In her bosoms and felt I'd arrived
At my sexual nirvana,
And felt my 'banana'
Grow thicker. She said, 'You've survived...

6562 BOOBS - LARGE - LARGER Peter W

...So much longer than previous guys.'
Then she opened her massive great thighs
And she drew me inside
Without breaking her stride,
And it's then that I got my surprise.

6563 BOOBS - LARGE - LARGER Peter W

For her slit was a bottomless pit
And my pecker was too small a fit.
In fact my whole torso
Was dragged in that whore, so
I furiously clung to her tit.

6564 BOOBS - LARGE - LARGER Peter W

At last I escaped with the loss
Of my dick which I use to call 'Boss'.
So I'm warning you Pete,
Just look after your meat,
'Cause that woman, she couldn't give a toss."

6565 BOOBS - LARGE - LARGER Peter W

"Well thanks for the warning, dear Fritz,"
I replied, "And I'm sorry those tits
On a bitch of that size
Nearly caused your demise,
And you suffered the loss of your bits."

Said Louise, "You just have to enquire."
Then she started to fond-

On the ground they'd be constantly grazing.

6599 BOOBS - LARGE - LARGER Funny Bone

Amanda's enormous great bust
Is the talk of the town and discussed
By the women with awe,
And a slap 'round the jaw,
For their menfolk who dribble with lust.

6600 BOOBS - LARGE - SERIES Peter Wilkins

Good heavens; Amanda has just
Trotted by at full throttle and thrust;
Her enormous great knockers --
Adrenaline shockers --
No wonder they're objects of lust.

6601 BOOBS - LARGE - SERIES Peter Wilkins

Now could there be anything grander,
Out here on my wooden verandah,
Pretending I'm tending
My garden and bending
To better my view of Amanda?

6602 BOOBS - LARGE - SERIES Peter Wilkins

Oh come now - I'm nobody's fool;
Unlike others I'm keeping my cool.
Although 'Manda's huge bust
Is an object of lust,
I'm in total control of my tool.

6603 BOOBS - LARGE - SERIES

Like spring-loaded jellies they bounce.
(Bet her nipples weigh more than an ounce).
If Amanda returns,
I shall hide in these ferns
'Til I've plucked up the courage to pounce.

6604 BOOBS - LARGE - SERIES Peter Wilkins

Oh, please, fellows, try not to gawk!
Those boobs are just poofed out with caulk.
Do you know her face?

You men look at her when you talk.

Constrained is Big Bertha's huge bust,
By the equal and opposite thrust,
Of a corset pulled tight,
After fighting all night,
With her pendulous udders untrussed...

6608 BOOBS - LARGE - SERIES Peter Wilkins

...I've been warming my quivering hands
On raging log fires hot pans,
And all in the hope
Of copping a grope
Of dear Bertha's mammary glands.

Had the biggest tits ever seen.

But gravity was a trouble;
She'd fall, when forward she'd lean.

6610 BOOBS - LARGE - SERIES Martin V Jensen

I think that I knew that girl too;
We were in the same gym class, true!
She had such a rack
That just one jumping-jack
Would turn both her eyes black-and-blue.

I am just now pleased to be free
Of those demons called 44D,

In 44D ollars,
To "Head Overhaulers".

6620 BOOBS - LARGE - SERIES Frank

In fact it's the B's and the C's

Your B-cups are all I require,
For they set me aflame and afire;

But maybe some help from a shrink,
Will allow me more clearly to think
Of the reasons behind
This fixation of mind,
And get rid of my mammary kink.

6710 BOOBS - LOVELY - SERIES Peter Wilkins

If I was a patient of yours,
I am sure you'd soon get to the cause
Of my tit fascination
And curb my temptation,
Of romping with floozies and whores.

6711 BOOBS - LOVELY - SERIES Peter Wilkins

Your talent is very apparent
But your Muse is simply aberrant...
She confines you to balls
And vaginal walls...
Do you think, in your brain, she's inherent?

6712 BOOBS - LOVELY - SERIES TuttaGioia

You probably think I'm a nutter
When musing on titties and utter such sentiments but,
Though addicted to smut,
I am utterly gutted, dear Tutta.

6713 BOOBS - LOVELY - SERIES Peter Wilkins

To think you believe I am strange
With a limited limerick range,
Which confines me to tits;
Yes, I know it's the pits,
But I'm very unlikely to change.

6714 BOOBS - LOVELY - SERIES Peter Wilkins

It's a case of the kettle and pot;
For I've read all your verses a lot,
And I like them; but Tutta
You're in the same gutta
As most of us; like it or not.

6715 BOOBS - LOVELY - SERIES Peter Wilkins

Intellectually not as inclined
As you obviously are in your mind,
I will try to write teasing,
Aesthetically pleasing
Short verses more highly refined.

6718 BOOBS - LOVELY - SERIES Peter Wilkins

But at literature, I am a dunce,
Though I did learn some poetry once.
Dostoevsky I've read,
But it damaged my head,

Well I've used up Einsteinian time
In composing this limerick rhyme.
So I'll post it before

Your breasts are a feast for my eyes;
They should never be fastened with ties,
But left free to entrance
All men with their dance,
And cause them to languish in sighs.

Could it be now you're telling sweet lies?
Or is something there wrong with your eyes?
I still haven't unpacked
These breasts that you smacked.
To take closer looks would be wise.

One she let fondle,
To another gave suck,
But the last one she couldn't stop having a fuck.

6841 BOOBS - MOUTHED G0762

All girls should have one nip to peck --
To lick on and suckle like heck.
First Leftie gets numb,
Then Rightie wants some.
The switching is hell on the neck.

6842 BOOBS - MOUTHED

Dear bosomy Wuzz, are you sure
I can fondle and squeeze and explore?
You've allowed me to stare,
Which I thought only fair,
Now you say I can lick 'em and more?

6843 BOOBS - MOUTHED Jim Weaver Collection

"The chill makes my nipples go perky,"
Said the debutante from Albuquerque.
"To my lover's delight,
They can stay hard all night,
And he can chew on them just like beef jerky."

6844 BOOBS - MOUTHED Tim Raptor

It seems that some men can't be bothered
To lie underneath and be smothered.
With me, no such fears;
I breath through my ears.
While screwing, I like to be mothered.

6845 BOOBS - MOUTHED

As for me, I just love lots of skin,
To bury my head deep within.
I thrive on deep billows
Of mammary pillows,
And pinkish pert nips 'neath my chin.

6846 BOOBS - MOUTHED

Snuggled deep 'neath the eider-down cover,
Cuddled tight in the arms of my lover,
I twisted my head
And greedily fed
From the milky white breasts of my mother.

6847 BOOBS - MOUTHED

Now girls are amused to discover
When coming, I do like to cover
My head with the sheets
Lock tight to their teats,
While frantically calling out "Mother!"

6848 BOOBS - MOUTHED

With delicious breasts she is graced --
Her nipples are honey to taste;
My wife's pair is small,
But I'm pleased after all,
'Cause more than a mouthful's a waste!

6849 BOOBS - MOUTHED Jim Thompson T9707

That he called her "My Cornish Hen."

On Maltilda's white bosom there leaned
The cheek of a low-minded fiend.
But she yanked up his head,
And sarcastically said,
"My Boy! Won't you ever be weaned!"

A fisherman out from Calais,
A mermaid ensnared in the bay.

So he sucked on her titties all day.

At one stage of the evening Dick Dipple
Remarked as he nuzzled Nan's nipple,
"For sex stimulus, this
Is a point not to miss,
But it's product I'd shun, as a tipple."

Their firmness. May I suggest,
That you have a feel,

Put your lips right there and press.

6855 BOOBS - MOUTHED

Those glorious nipples of Kelly's,
Like raspberries balanced on jellies,
Cause trouser affray
And explosions of spray,
Quite sufficient to fill up one's wellies.

In these days of intense frost, all berries
Are more pinkish, like painted by fairies.
In the rush caused by tint,
Let me give you this hint:
Disappear many fruits such as cherries.

6857 BOOBS - MOUTHED Ulla

I have one very nice nipple
From which you may now take a tipple.
It's pretty and pert,
So give it a squirt;
I make it taste like raspberry ripple.

6858 BOOBS - MOUTHED Michelle

Now Ulla, I do prefer cherries
To raisins and wrinkled old berries.
And as to those painted
By fairies, they're tainted;
I'll leave them for Frenchies and Jerries.

6859 BOOBS - MOUTHED Michelle

Like raspberry ripple, Michelle?
Is it secret, or please can you tell
All the girls that I know
The recipe, so
I can try it on those girls as well?

6860 BOOBS - MOUTHED John Miller

You only have one, dear Michelle?
Or only the one that a fel-
Low so gently can sip
While causing a rip-
Ple of pleasure in every last cell.

6861 BOOBS - MOUTHED John Miller

Raspberry ripple is simply divine;
Men go for it all of the time.
But for the real rare ones,
The braving and dare one,
The other one, it tastes of LIME!

6862 BOOBS - MOUTHED John Miller

The usual kind or the key... (key lime pie)
If you have ample,
Please send me a sample
Container, express C.O.D..

But two would be better, it seems.
One right, and one left
Leaves me bereft;
I will see that you're smothered in cream!

I've not much to offer you, see?
No money or toys
But I charge all the boys,

"I am dying of thirst, but I'm poor,"
Says the tramp as he sinks to the floor;
"I'm dehydrated, man;
I must do what I can,"
As he's hoisting the brass cuspidor.

7088 BOOZE - ALCOHOLICS Allen Wolverton

With lips glued to that bowl, his throat pumps.
Full of phlegm and tobacco-ish lumps.
Barkeep says, "Man, Great Scott!
You can't guzzle that rot!"
All the tramps says is "guggle guggle gumphs!"

7089 BOOZE - ALCOHOLICS Allen Wolverton

Then the barkeep caves in with a frown;
"Take this freebie, the best brew in town!"
But the mucus and pulps,
He still gurgles and gulps,
Till at last, the spitoon he puts down.

7090 BOOZE - ALCOHOLICS Allen Wolverton

Gladly taking the free beer to follow,
The old tramp in the sawdust does wallow.
Barkeep says: "Why the fug
Did you continue to chug?"
"Couldn't stop; it was all in one swallow!"

7091 BOOZE - ALCOHOLICS Allen Wolverton

Maybe you should stop now and think
Before taking the very next drink.
If your mind is blanked

AA is a group that's anonymous,
But hope is a word that's synonymous.
It offers recovery
And inner discovery,
And still you stay quite autonomous.

7098 BOOZE - ALCOHOLICS Bob Phillips

AA is the place for a drunk;
They'll help you and give you some spunk.
Where else would you hear
A rousing loud cheer
When you say you have sunk to a funk?

And continually falsely denying;
For sober serenity,

A lascivious gentleman, Martin,
After a fuck would swiftly be parting.
Did anyone here
See him piss in my beer? --
My membrum virile is smarting.

Who wouldn't drink water
Was opening a bottle of beer.

It is useless for people to seek
A pisser like Dribblepuss Beek:
He'll sit for a year,
Drinking oceans of beer,
Then knock off and piss for a week.

I entered this house of pleasure,
And right away I could measure
The Beer in the air;
Never causing despair,
I had found a wonderful treasure.

7218 BOOZE - BEER Martin V Jensen

On the counter it stood -- the glass
With a shiny colour like brass.
It was beer, indeed,
And I grabbed it in greed;
Such a chance I could not let pass.

7219 BOOZE - BEER Martin V Jensen

I hurled it in my throat, so sore,
And felt the power in every pore.
But after the first,
I still had mad thirst,
So I hurried and ordered one more.

7220 BOOZE - BEER Martin V Jensen

"A Beer? -- a big one or small?"
The 'tender said from his stall,
"Or medium, which size? --
Choose accurate and wise!"
"Oh sod it!" I said, "I'll have them all!"

7221 BOOZE - BEER Martin V Jensen

From A to Z -- all the way,
Feeling fresh and alright,
Shining bright as a light.
Once again Beer had saved the day.

When the beer's not that nice,
But drinks up, if it's got what it takes.

7331 BOOZE - BEER - HOMEBREW   Bill Mendyka

There once was a pub in Corfu,
With beer that was only home-brewed.
Said Sam with a mug,
"To approve of your club,
I'd like ten more mugs for review!"

7332 BOOZE - BEER - HOMEBREW   Jim Weaver Collection

I used to drink jugs of light beer.
But lately it's become much too dear.
I tried brew-at-home,
But now must atone,
For a product that tastes rather queer.

7333 BOOZE - BEER - HOMEBREW

This product you've started atoning,
Does it give you a rush or a stoning?
I might take a hit
If chicks like the shit,
Enough to start moaning for boning.

7334 BOOZE - BEER - HOMEBREW

A brewer who brewed his own brew,
He brewed a new brew that was blue;
'Twas a strange looking beer,
Whose appearance was queer,
And was only enjoyed by a few.

7335 BOOZE - BEER - HOMEBREW Cap'n Bean P0101

A wife to her husband said, "Dear,
I'm infected with yeast, I do fear."
But he was a genius,
Hung hops from his penis,
And said, "Then let's just make beer!"

7336 BOOZE - BEER - HOMEBREW

If it's homebrew that you want the facts on,
Consult the old pro, Michael Jackson.
The price would be steeper,
But he'd make it cheaper,
The six packs we pay the sin tax on.

7337 BOOZE - BEER - HOMEBREW

The hero of every home brewer,
Is a Frenchman that's known as Pasteur.
His knowledge of bugs
Has improved many mugs
Of old ale, with the taste of a sewer.

7338 BOOZE - BEER - HOMEBREW Hammer

While brewing at home one fine Sunday,
Watched over by Brewmaster Bundy.
He said without haste,
"Hey! That's water you waste,
And they're dying of thirst in Barundi!"

7339 BOOZE - BEER - HOMEBREW Hammer

"I'll not kill myself, never fear,
By drinking 3.2 percent beer."
But his wife, don't you know,
Chortled, "I told you so!"
When they brought him home dead on his bier.

7340 BOOZE - BEER - LOVED Laurence Perrine P9506

In Oz a man can drink for his state;
Swill Fosters, call everyone 'mate';
While getting rat-assed.
Why are they small-glassed?
What a binge, pint tankards could create.

7341 BOOZE - BEER - LOVED Tony Burrell

I'm Bud and I'm glad to be here.
There's something I want to make clear;
I blame my affliction
On Mother's addiction,
And one fetal glass of draught beer!

7342 BOOZE - BEER - LOVED Mark Levy P9506

I've chosen to speak with great gravity
Regarding my social depravity;
My illness is chronic,
And as a health tonic,
I quaff from the vaginal cavity.

7343 BOOZE - BEER - LOVED Mark Levy P9506

Please join me, and when we're all through,
Your taste will convince you it's true.
Additional yeast
Adds kick to the feast,
A bubbling and full-bodied brew!

7344 BOOZE - BEER - LOVED Mark Levy P9506

A night out's an excuse for a beer;
Three or four and there's nothing you'll fear.
So pull out all the stops;
Back away from those hops;
While your mind and your eyes are still clear.

7345 BOOZE - BEER - LOVED Arthur Pattaffy

A large Aussie with the name of Kelly,

In my youth, life and love seemed so good;
When next to my Sweet Thing I stood,
I was thrilled by her scent,
Wherever I went.
Just holding hands made me grow wood.

7347 BOOZE - BEER - LOVED Allen Wolverton

But now you're an old married man,
And your Sweet Thing's more pudgy than tan.
And the thing you think tops,
Comes from barley and hops,
And decants full of foam from a can.

Been three days with no beer to drink;
Quitting beer is one great big stink.

A bit greedy, but what can I do?

7370 BOOZE - BEER - LOVED Al Willis P9506

A stout is the best of the breed,
Of the dark beers that sustain one in need.
It imparts a warm feeling,
But sets the mind reeling,
If too many are quaffed without heed.

7371 BOOZE - BEER - LOVED Bill Mendyka

In the great days of life under sail,
A captain's life sometimes would fail.
With the rest of the crew,
Their companions just threw
Then, wrapped in a sack, o'er the rail.

7376 BOOZE - BRANDY Tiddy Ogg

But the captain was placed in a box,
Sealed tightly and placed upon blocks,
Which was filled up with brandy
Or whatever was handy,
To preserve it till back at the docks.

7377 BOOZE - BRANDY Tiddy Ogg

By the coffin was stationed a guard.
But when the ship came to its yard,
More often than not,
The body was rot
ted and to find the cause was not hard...

7378 BOOZE - BRANDY Tiddy Ogg

...To discover. The guard had an awl,
Made in the box a small hole,
And he'd secretely sup
The spirits right up,
Until there was none left at all.

7379 BOOZE - BRANDY Tiddy Ogg

Well now I am just struck with awe;
That story just sticks in my craw.
But I was just wondering
If the guards nightly plundering,
Used the captains dick for a straw?

9609 CELEBS - HISTORY - GODIVA A. N. Wilkins P9112

When Lady Godiva last year
Rode her Harley through Coventry here,
The constables looked
And had the lass booked
For not wearing protective head gear.

9610 CELEBS - HISTORY - GODIVA   A. N. Wilkins   P8312

When asked about Lady Godiva,
Her husband, the Lord, said, "God, I've a
Wife with no clothes--
Now everyone knows
That I am an under-provider."

9611 CELEBS - HISTORY - GODIVA   Irving Superior   P9212

"Strip", Leofric said, "and you'll find I'll take off the tax you've in mind."
So Godiva, she streaked,
And nobody peeked,
Except Peeping Tom, who went blind.

9612 CELEBS - HISTORY - GODIVA   Harry Thomas

Lady Godiva was quipping
About all the clothes she was skipping;
"When I get a quick lay
From my sixteen-hand bay,
I save lots of time by not stripping."

9613 CELEBS - HISTORY - GODIVA   Actaeon

That woman named Lady Godiva
Wore nothing at all that would hide her.
When she let down her hair,
She left much that was bare
So men would continue to eye her.

9614 CELEBS - HISTORY - GODIVA   Warrick Elrod

"What a fine pair of buttocks," said Ivor
At the nude vision of Lady Godiva.
But his sexual preference
Meant that his reference
Was to the vehicle and not the driver!

9615 CELEBS - HISTORY - GODIVA   H Myers

Her sidesaddle progress was slow;
No track tout would rate her a pro.
Said Godiva, "I rode
While the townspeople oh'd;
Not to win or to place, but to show!"

9616 CELEBS - HISTORY - GODIVA

The townspeople's eyes would all pop,
Every time Ms. Godiva would stop.
'Twas by no means her bare back
That made all them stare back;
'Twas the fact that the horse was on top!

9617 CELEBS - HISTORY - GODIVA   Rowdy Jack

Lady Godiva's hung stallion
Was Latin, he neighed in Italian.
His "Dolce biscotti"
Got her all hotty;
For Equis she dumped the batallion.

9618 CELEBS - HISTORY - GODIVA   T

In transposition, horse becomes PRAD,
Some thought of which I can be glad:
And erstwhile Godiva
Caused drooling saliva,
While parading on her prad unclad.

9619 CELEBS - HISTORY - GODIVA   Daniel Ford

Voluptuous Lady Godiva
Made Coventry's menfolk saliva....
Her naked horse ride
Had a tax nullifed,
But destroyed Peeping Tom's conjuctiva!

9620 CELEBS - HISTORY - GODIVA   Prof M-G   TP9901

A young lass was swifly arrested
For riding on horseback bare breasted.
I'll bet you a fiver,
'Twas Lady Godiva!
Lucky too, that she wasn't molested!

9621 CELEBS - HISTORY - GODIVA   Jayne

Godiva, The Lady rode bare
Through streets where the people would stare;
Her protesting ride
On all that horsehide
Rubbed off every trace of cunt hair.

9622 CELEBS - HISTORY - GODIVA

For her horse she refused any tack;
Instead chose to ride him bareback.
She liked how it felt,
When it's nice hairy pelt,
Would move back and forth in her crack.

9623 CELEBS - HISTORY - GODIVA

We thought that the nags flowing mane
The Lady did treat with disdain.
But upon dismount,
We did a hair count,
And found we were counting in vain.

9624 CELEBS - HISTORY - GODIVA   Frank

She sat on that horse, with aplomb,
Despite protestations from mom.
All traffic did stop,
You could hear needles drop,
And also a peep from young Tom.

9625 CELEBS - HISTORY - GODIVA

She rode naked, but not to earn cash,
For some cause, it was not just to flash.
At the end of the course,
They did find her poor horse
Had developed a nasty skin rash.

9626 CELEBS - HISTORY - GODIVA   Travis Brassel

Considered sublime was the Khan,
Who said to his men, "Build a lawn,
And sow it with seed,
And do it with speed."
So hearing, they left, and were gone.

9627 CELEBS - HISTORY - KUBLAI KHAN Matthew Montchalin

For miles, they recorded the banks
Of the River, to whom they gave thanks,
For water that's sweet,
Where Khan dipped his feet,
Off ramps with high roofs and long planks.

9628 CELEBS - HISTORY - KUBLAI KHAN Matthew Montchalin

They staked out the River Alph's edge,
And put in a watering ditch,
And planted some trees,
And thus they did please
The Khan who observed from a ledge.

9629 CELEBS - HISTORY - KUBLAI KHAN Matthew Montchalin

Khan's garden was glorious, green;
It measured across to the mean,
Some five and half miles;
It rivaled the Nile's
Great treasures, both seen and unseen.

9630 CELEBS - HISTORY - KUBLAI KHAN Matthew Montchalin

Wet Alph ran through channels and streams,
Through crevices, cracks, and down seams,
Over rapids and falls,
Down cold canyon walls,
Where only the moon casts its beams.

9631 CELEBS - HISTORY - KUBLAI KHAN Matthew Montchalin

The oldest of trees, thereabout,
Abundant therein and throughout,
They grew in a stand,
Long tended by hand,
With vines and sweet songbirds endowed.

9632 CELEBS - HISTORY - KUBLAI KHAN Matthew Montchalin

Khan stationed his guards all around,
Protecting its rich hallowed ground,
Its flowers and trees,
And so it did please,
The way the birds looked, and their sound.

9633 CELEBS - HISTORY - KUBLAI KHAN Matthew Montchalin

As though his were god-given rules,
He ordered magnificent pools
Be built with a dome,
Then fill for a home
To fish that swam circles in schools.

9634 CELEBS - HISTORY - KUBLAI KHAN Matthew Montchalin

But oh! How romantic 'twas told,
How a ghost of a woman from old,
Did wail through the night
Until the first light,
And looked for her lover to hold.

9635 CELEBS - HISTORY - KUBLAI KHAN Matthew Montchalin

From cedar to cedar she cried
And called out, she was his true bride,
For her home just ahead
Was a demon she'd wed,
Disappearing right where it grows wide.

9636 CELEBS - HISTORY - KUBLAI KHAN Matthew Montchalin

Not far from the place where she cried,
Was a crack where the Earth heaved and sighed;
That vent blew out air,
Wet sprays in a flare,
Expelling great jets on the side.

9637 CELEBS - HISTORY - KUBLAI KHAN Matthew Montchalin

Ejecting odd mixtures of rocks,
Of riverstones, boulders and blocks,
Which flow, although stone,
And danced as if thrown,
So piling to form river locks.

9638 CELEBS - HISTORY - KUBLAI KHAN Matthew Montchalin

Just after those rapids it rushed,
Meandering, gurgling, it gushed,
Then whiled its own way,
Five miles in a day,
Through valleys and hills till it hushed.

9639 CELEBS - HISTORY - KUBLAI KHAN Matthew Montchalin

It trickled through caverns of stone,
Down deep to a distance unknown,
Admittedly quite deep,
Through falls that were steep,
So joining a netherworld zone.

9640 CELEBS - HISTORY - KUBLAI KHAN Matthew Montchalin

Though Alph's tumbling waters were loud,
The Khan listened keenly and bowed,
And said to his men,
Strange axels did spin;
An army approached, strong and proud.

9641 CELEBS - HISTORY - KUBLAI KHAN Matthew Montchalin

He ordered his men, "You must kneel
To hear how the chariot wheel
Makes a murmuring sound,
As it runs on the ground,
And makes those bells jingle and peal."

9642 CELEBS - HISTORY - KUBLAI KHAN Matthew Montchalin

Moreover, he said his machine
Made pictures that looked like a scene
From a puppetry show,
In the pools found below
That dome to his garden so green.

9643 CELEBS - HISTORY - KUBLAI KHAN Matthew Montchalin

Quite cryptically, crossed and recrossed,
It glittered in waters embossed.
He watched how it waved
With symbols engraved,
Which vanished whenever waves tossed.

9644 CELEBS - HISTORY - KUBLAI KHAN Matthew Montchalin

Slashed strokes upon strokes saying "War,"
They covered Alph's waters and more.
They warned how it came
Preceding its fame,
And how its wheels whistled and roared.

9645 CELEBS - HISTORY - KUBLAI KHAN Matthew Montchalin

Crossed characters crying out war,
They threatened sweet Alph with red gore;
Declaring the claim
That Kublai's to blame,
And crooked, corrupt to the core.

9646 CELEBS - HISTORY - KUBLAI KHAN Matthew Montchalin

And under the fountain that fed
The pools where the warnings were said,
The waters were clear,
But turning a gear,
Into ice they were hardened instead.

9647 CELEBS - HISTORY - KUBLAI KHAN Matthew Montchalin

The Garden of Khan was so great
That the dome on the pools tempted fate,
And under the pools
Were caves full of jewels,
And glittering ice lakes ornate.

9648 CELEBS - HISTORY - KUBLAI KHAN Matthew Montchalin

For the formations were ice that had flowed
For ages, and so they were old,
In twisted curved shapes,
Like blankets and capes,
Or figures withdrawn from a mold.

9649 CELEBS - HISTORY - KUBLAI KHAN Matthew Montchalin

And on the Khan's dome the sun blazed,
And near it great cedars were raised.
And flowers did blush,
The winds made to hush,
And sentries stood stand where they're placed.

9650 CELEBS - HISTORY - KUBLAI KHAN Matthew Montchalin

I heard then a damsel that played
A harp or a lyre, and she swayed,
Enchanting my vision
With every rendition,
And singing things heavenly made.

9651 CELEBS - HISTORY - KUBLAI KHAN Matthew Montchalin

Of swarthy east African hue,
A damsel whose singing was true,
She sang of the place,
With remarkable grace,
Where up on Mount Bora she grew.

9652 CELEBS - HISTORY - KUBLAI KHAN Matthew Montchalin

That maid, Abyssinian sweet,
With beautiful ivory white teeth,
Her fingers played strings,
Made music for kings,
A symphony, stirring, complete.

9653 CELEBS - HISTORY - KUBLAI KHAN Matthew Montchalin

The note of that harp seemed to fill
My heart like a cup that might spill,
Just thinking of that,
I collapsed and then sat,
And swooned as though under a spell.

9654 CELEBS - HISTORY - KUBLAI KHAN Matthew Montchalin

If only I somehow could know
The notes of that song, and its flow.
I'd lay out the score
And then I'd restore
The dome of the Kublai Khan, so.

9655 CELEBS - HISTORY - KUBLAI KHAN Matthew Montchalin

That all could behold it and see
The way it did hang over me,
Suspended on strings,
Bright musical things,
His pleasure dome, bright as could be.

9656 CELEBS - HISTORY - KUBLAI KHAN Matthew Montchalin

And the ice caves that glittered just under,
Resounding with musical thunder,
The chords of her song,
Swelled up and along,
Inspiring both awe and great wonder.

9657 CELEBS - HISTORY - KUBLAI KHAN Matthew Montchalin

And seeing, how could they help sighing,
"Behold it, behold what he's trying,
How Kublai, he brings
His garden, his springs,
His birds which sang sweetly when flying!"

9658 CELEBS - HISTORY - KUBLAI KHAN Matthew Montchalin

And seeing it, all would be crying,
"Beware of it! Watch how its flying!
How Kublai did wink,
This too makes you think
About the great risks of defying!"

9659 CELEBS - HISTORY - KUBLAI KHAN Matthew Montchalin

His greatness is there in the air.
His nobleness, favor, and flare,
He goes with his dome;
You'll see what is shown,
And see his bright eyes and straight hair.

9660 CELEBS - HISTORY - KUBLAI KHAN Matthew Montchalin

A pentacle, circle it thrice,
To keep him kept in, and his eyes,
And his dome and his battles,
His soldiers and saddles,
His glittering caverns of ice!

9661 CELEBS - HISTORY - KUBLAI KHAN Matthew Montchalin

Turn away from his dome and his eyes!
In case you should think you're as wise
As he who did feed
On honey=sweet mead,
Or who built for himself paradise.

9662 CELEBS - HISTORY - KUBLAI KHAN Matthew Montchalin

In Xanadu girls dance, in lantern Light, making most fellers pant.
But though they dance naxid,
Khan's member stays flaccid;
I guess you could say Kubla Khan't.

9663 CELEBS - HISTORY - KUBLAI KHAN

Kublai Khan once complained to his men,
"I eat a huge banquet and then
In an hour or so,
I feel just as though
I were actually hungry again."

9664 CELEBS - HISTORY - KUBLAI KHAN A. N. Wilkins P9212

Though it's been over-long in gestation,
Here at last is the manifestation,
Of the great Kublai Khan,
And his huge pleasure barn,
That he built near to Charing Cross Station.

9665 CELEBS - HISTORY - KUBLAI KHAN Tiddy Ogg

In that mystical place, Xanadu,
Kublai Khan built a house built for two,
Or three thousand or more,
And filled it with whores,
Girlie shows and movies so blue.

9666 CELEBS - HISTORY - KUBLAI KHAN Tiddy Ogg

So the Khan and his men had such fun,
(Kublai's favorite was dressed as a nun.)
They were fucking away
For many a day,
Till the floors ran with whiskey and come.

9667 CELEBS - HISTORY - KUBLAI KHAN Tiddy Ogg

Then the cry came: "Beware! Mongol hordes!"
So they ran, barring windows and doors.
Said the Khan: "Lads, be bold!
Give them jewels and gold,
But they ain't getting hold of these whores."

9668 CELEBS - HISTORY - KUBLAI KHAN Tiddy Ogg

But a horseman, they knew as old Alph,
Was shit-scared and feared for his health.
Out the back gate he rode,
In the Mongol Horde strode,
And old Kublai was routed -- not half.

9669 CELEBS - HISTORY - KUBLAI KHAN Tiddy Ogg

So poor Kublai Khan was no more.
The barbarians had orgies galore.
But Xanadian girls
Can go many whirls,
And the warriors were soon on the floor.

9670 CELEBS - HISTORY - KUBLAI KHAN Tiddy Ogg

And their fame still endures to this day.
So if you go down Charing Cross way,
And there ask a flozie:
"Wanna Xanadusie?"
I'm surprised if the hussy says nay.

9671 CELEBS - HISTORY - KUBLAI KHAN Tiddy Ogg

Well, here I must end my oration;
My nurse is here with medication.
And if she wants a screw,
I'm sure I can do
My stuff with some more Viagration.

9672 CELEBS - HISTORY - KUBLAI KHAN Tiddy Ogg

Now this is Nurse Emma to tell
You that crazy old fool's shot to hell.
You can take it from me,
That his impotency,
Would need splints and a cast there as well.

9673 CELEBS - HISTORY - KUBLAI KHAN Tiddy Ogg

The addled old fool's little song
Confuses Khan with Mendelson's

Thus the site for this poem,
Is a few thousand miles distant wrong.

Said she, "I'll perform a great stunt:

Two critics called Ebert and Siskel
Are giants in film matters fiscal.
If they up their thumbs,
A huge audience comes,
If they down them, a movie may risk all.

Dustin Hoffman's a film hall-of-famer;
I can say this without a disclaimer.
He's on Seinfeld this week
With his pal, Meryl Streep,
In a Kramer vs Kramer vs Kramer.

10089 CELEBS - MOVIES - MALE Larry Hollister

Many Oscar results should be tossed --
The Academy must have been sauced.
Hoffman won the thing twice:
"Rain" and "Kramer", that's nice.
But it hurts that his "Tootsie" role lost.

When the geographical spread of the urge to sin
Causes juvenile delinquency,
